

The Seniors of Mishawaka High School, Mishawaka, Indiana, present their view of the year 1945-46 with a few comments on the past.

Miskodeed 1946

Twenty-Five Years of Progress

Superintendent P. C. Emmons

In August, 1921, our presently retiring superintendent, Mr. P. C. Emmons, came to take over the Mishawaka city schools, which have grown and prospered greatly since that time.

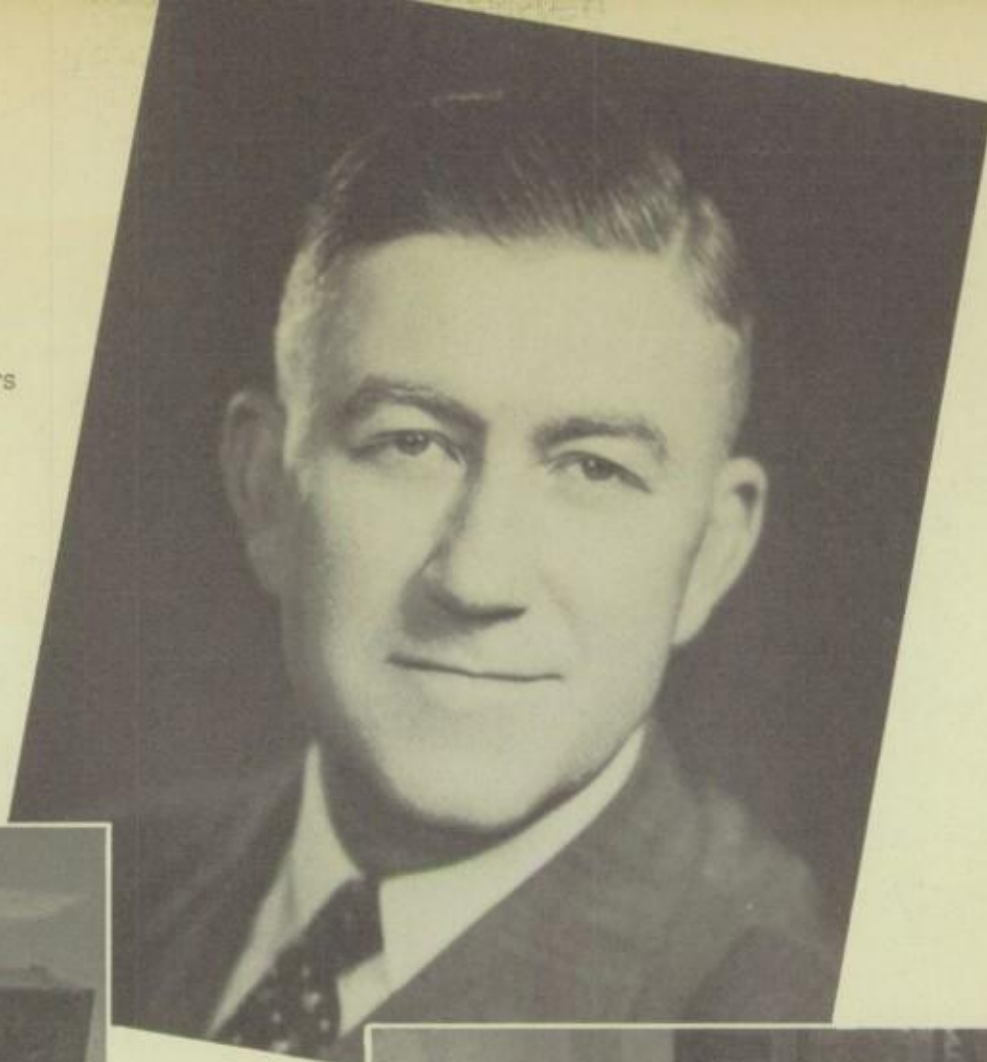

"The meeting will please come to order" probably opened a board meeting which resulted in the construction of a new high school on a site which was practically open country. From 1911, when the high school numbered 158 students, the high school enrollment had grown to 415 in 1921, and Mr. Emmons believed there were signs pointing to a growth of several hundred students within the next year or two. The problem had to be met. After a series of conferences with school board members and city officials, not all of whom saw "the signs," the contract was let to Perkins, Fellows, and Hamilton, a splendid firm of architects in Chicago.

When school opened in the beautiful new building, in the fall of 1924, there were 28 teachers. In 1921 there were only 15 teachers; four vocational teachers, one physical education teacher—a woman, and ten academic teachers.

In 1925 the cafeteria began to function and the auditorium was complete with sound-proofing. The auditorium was built to seat about 1,200 persons, because it was meant to serve the community as well as the school. Although it was practically unheard of at that time, quarters were set aside for a school book store in which rental books have since found an important place.

In the opinion of many of the townspeople, the gymnasium was far too large. They were certain that the enrollment would never grow up to it. They could not foresee the girls clamoring for a gym of their own or the sectional tournament being moved to John Adams.

Principal Russell R. Myers

Dean of Girls Lynetta E. Wilson

Assistant Principal Frank W. Chapman

In order to provide a good field for football, soil was brought from the hills to fill in the site of our present athletic field. It was during the depression years when W. P. A. labor was available that the stadium was built little by little, as materials and money could be secured. Although some of the brick was salvaged from the Notre Dame building program, the bleachers are first class and at least a part of the dressing room facilities were installed.

Meanwhile the student body grew from 415 in 1921 with 60 graduates to 545 in 1922, over 600 in 1923, and the high water mark of 2,067 in 1941 when the junior high schools carried part of the heavy load. In 1941 there were nearly 1900 students in the high school alone. During Mr. Emmons 25 year reign there have been over 5,000 graduates. The school system has grown through the building of LaSalle School, the Beiger School, Mary Phillips School, the front section of Battell School, and the inheriting of Twin Branch School at the time when the city limits were extended.

The 15 teachers of 1921 have grown to more than fifty. Departmental clubs, oratorical contests and dramatics are still with us, supplemented by others which reflect a much broader curriculum, plus the honor societies which highlight our achievements. Our library has outgrown the room assigned

For your untiring effort, your broad vision, it is to you, Mr. Emmons, that we, the Senior Class, dedicate our Miskodeed.

BOARD OF CONTROL—Clockwise from the left: Morgan, Hoffman, Holderman, Mr. Hatcher, Miss Miller, president; Miss Wilson, Miss Perkins, Roggeman, Kempner, Mr. Yaw. Standing; Mr. Steele, Wedsworth.

Student Council

The first student council meeting was called to order on September 23, 1941 by John Bodle, president. Mr. Maurice Kuhn was sponsor. When war came and Mr. Kuhn left for the Navy, Miss Lynetta Wilson took over the head sponsorship.

One of their first projects was to organize a group of students to be in the halls at all times to meet visitors and run errands, and thus the Hall Guides originated. Other early Student Council projects were the pep session and dance before the Central-Mishawaka football game. In the past the Student Council has collected money for the Red Cross, the Anti-Tuberculosis League, and clothes for needy war victims. The stair system that freshman find so hard to follow is one of the council's first projects. Student Council campaigns and elections have become a part of MHS.

This year, in the capable hands of Robert Lovett, the Student Council put into effect the noon lunch project and the noon dances. Records for the dances were purchased by the council. They took over the football concessions to earn money. At one time the student council had 7c in the treasury. Now, it has a sizable sum to its credit.

LORA DUGUID KOHLER

National Honor Society to her credit.
"Now, class, uhmmm,"—she said it.

Little Known Facts

In 1922, when Mr. Emmons came to Mishawaka, he found Mr. Sprague a member of the faculty. Miss Heimbach, Miss Ulrey, and Mr. Chapman were added that year. Miss Betts was secretary to the Superintendent, as well as to the Board of Education. There was one clerk for the book store and a single helper in the principal's office.

That year Mr. Sprague helped organize the Engineering Club. The Senior Class presented: "The Seven Sisters", which was also this year's senior play. The Latin department began the publication of the Mercurius, a department news sheet which appeared regularly thereafter for some twenty years.

The following year, Mrs. Kohler, then Miss Duguid, and Miss Moist joined the faculty, and the Board of Control was organized.

In 1922, for the first time, attendance at the Junior Prom was limited to juniors and seniors. The 1922 Prom was a dinner-dance held in the Mishawaka Hotel and there were paper hats and confetti.

MAURICE R. KUHN

As a freshie counsellor, he's full of tips;
Tops as a teacher of Citizenship.

LEROY R. LEIFER

Being an arbitrator is his game,
Good feeling among fellows is his aim.

EARL STINE

Fishey, fishey in the brook,
Stiney caught you on the hook.

HELEN STODDART

An English teacher of Canadian descent,
Through all the halls her guides are sent.

RUSSELL H. STOUT

Very energetic, with dimples beyond doubt,
Head of Social Science and junior class, Mr.
Stout.

RAYMOND F. STRUCK

Hoop happy Struck, our sailor come back,
With a basketball team he has a knack.

WALTER E. THURSTON

He's head of the track-a-teers of MHS
As a "work-em-hard" coach, he's one of the best.

WILLIAM ULMER

A Hi-Y sponsor with two study halls,
"Time to quiet down now," he calls.

LORRAINE ULREY

Famous for the biology pictures she shows,
Hardly a bird or bee she doesn't know.

LOUISE WALTON

A lady of extremely good taste,
Not a minute of her time does she waste.

LELA WARD

"Welcome!" from Beiger Junior High,
A florist shop within her room—sigh!

ROBERT W. WARRING

"See the ole smoke risin' down the line . . ."
His Engineers Club is doing fine!

DARL F. WOOD

Senior sponsor in 103,
His pride and joy are we!

LOWELL D. YAW

Uncle Joe has a fine stage crew;
Marvelous personality, and lots of fun, too.

In 1924, Mr. William Tupper for whom Tupper field is named, became a member of the Board of Education. About this time interschool oratorical contests were very popular.

For several years, there had been an orchestra of the concert type which provided entr'acte music for plays as well as matinee dances. In 1926, Mr. Wood organized the first band of 36 pieces.

Snatches on the Senior Class

Highlights we can't forget are—the return of the Junior-Senior prom to the Palais Royale—versatile Violet Guylanics receiving the DAR award for good citizenship—Betty Tripple and her everlasting "TB or not TB"—inseparable twosomes, Rexetta Shetterly and Bill Deethardt, Pat Colins and Emil Pozwilka—our new attraction, Shirley Krause, from Gary—the pin-up picture of Lela Muldoon in study hall 138—Central minded seniors, Margaret Bluem and Rosemary Reed—the Ganser tribe—Mrs. Paul Robeson and her talk on race problems—Lena Turner from Pumpkin Center, Missoura alias Ruthie Heeter, office secretary—the lively pep sessions and outstanding school spirit—Emily Behnke's winning the County Tuberculosis League poster contest—Bob Lovett and Dick Kempner, Rotary representatives—Bill Roggeman and Bud Marsee, Kiwanis representatives—our football players' chorus line—the calling card "shower"—locker inspection—hall roamers—future teachers, Pet Stoeffelen and Kathy Guite—the amoozin' but confoozin' "olf" language—hep jitterbugs, Dick Van Ooteghem and Roxy Ann LaCava—the impressive Christmas vespers—the new parking system—Max Kraning's short visit—the gym class dancing sessions—the welcome vacations—the wear and tear sock dancers—lost and found notices—and all the other incidents that will live forever in our memories making our high school career an unforgettable and pleasant experience.

Some of the veterans who are graduating with the class of 1946 took the General Education Development Test. This is a test compiled especially for returning veterans who, when they have passed it, may obtain high school diplomas. Their ability to pass this test does not necessarily make them eligible for entrance into a college. The veterans graduating under this plan are Leland Clark, Kenneth Coil, Paul Devine, Floyd Francis, Raymond Hoffman, Dick Holsinger, Paul Ives, Floyd Kuzmanovich, Raymond Michael, Robert McLane, Robert Royer, Harry Sweeney, Charles Miller. Joe Digirolamo, Bill Johnson, and Arthur Lowery are enrolled in high school at the present time.

Mrs. Conant conducting hearing tests.

M. H. S. Enlarges Its Health Program

Although the wartime Physical Fitness program has been discontinued, the value of a larger health program is apparent. Mrs. Gladys Conant, school nurse, since she serves three other schools, spends only half her time at the high school, where she dispenses first aid and counsels students who are repeatedly ill. She also confers with parents when needed.

Hearing tests were given to ninth and eleventh grades this year and to all others who had not previously been tested. It was recommended to seriously handicapped students that they consult a physician, and teachers were notified so that considerations might be extended. Eye tests were given to sophomores and to all others who experienced difficulties. Physical examinations are given once a year to juniors and those in physical education. Doctors of our city conduct thorough examinations and all questionable results must be cleared up or the student is kept from participation. Tuberculin skin tests are given to those in the physical education program not previously tested. Those students whose tests show positive reactions have x-ray pictures taken. If a student is found to have active tuberculosis, the league plans with the family for adequate treatment. This spring, the Tuberculosis League offered free x-ray service to all the freshmen and juniors in school. X-rays of nearly 700 students were taken in the gymnasium of our own school.

First Row: Rudduck, Foster, Wiseman, Long, Conley, Leonard, Garrard, Everhart, Hunter, Sweeny.

A Capella Choir

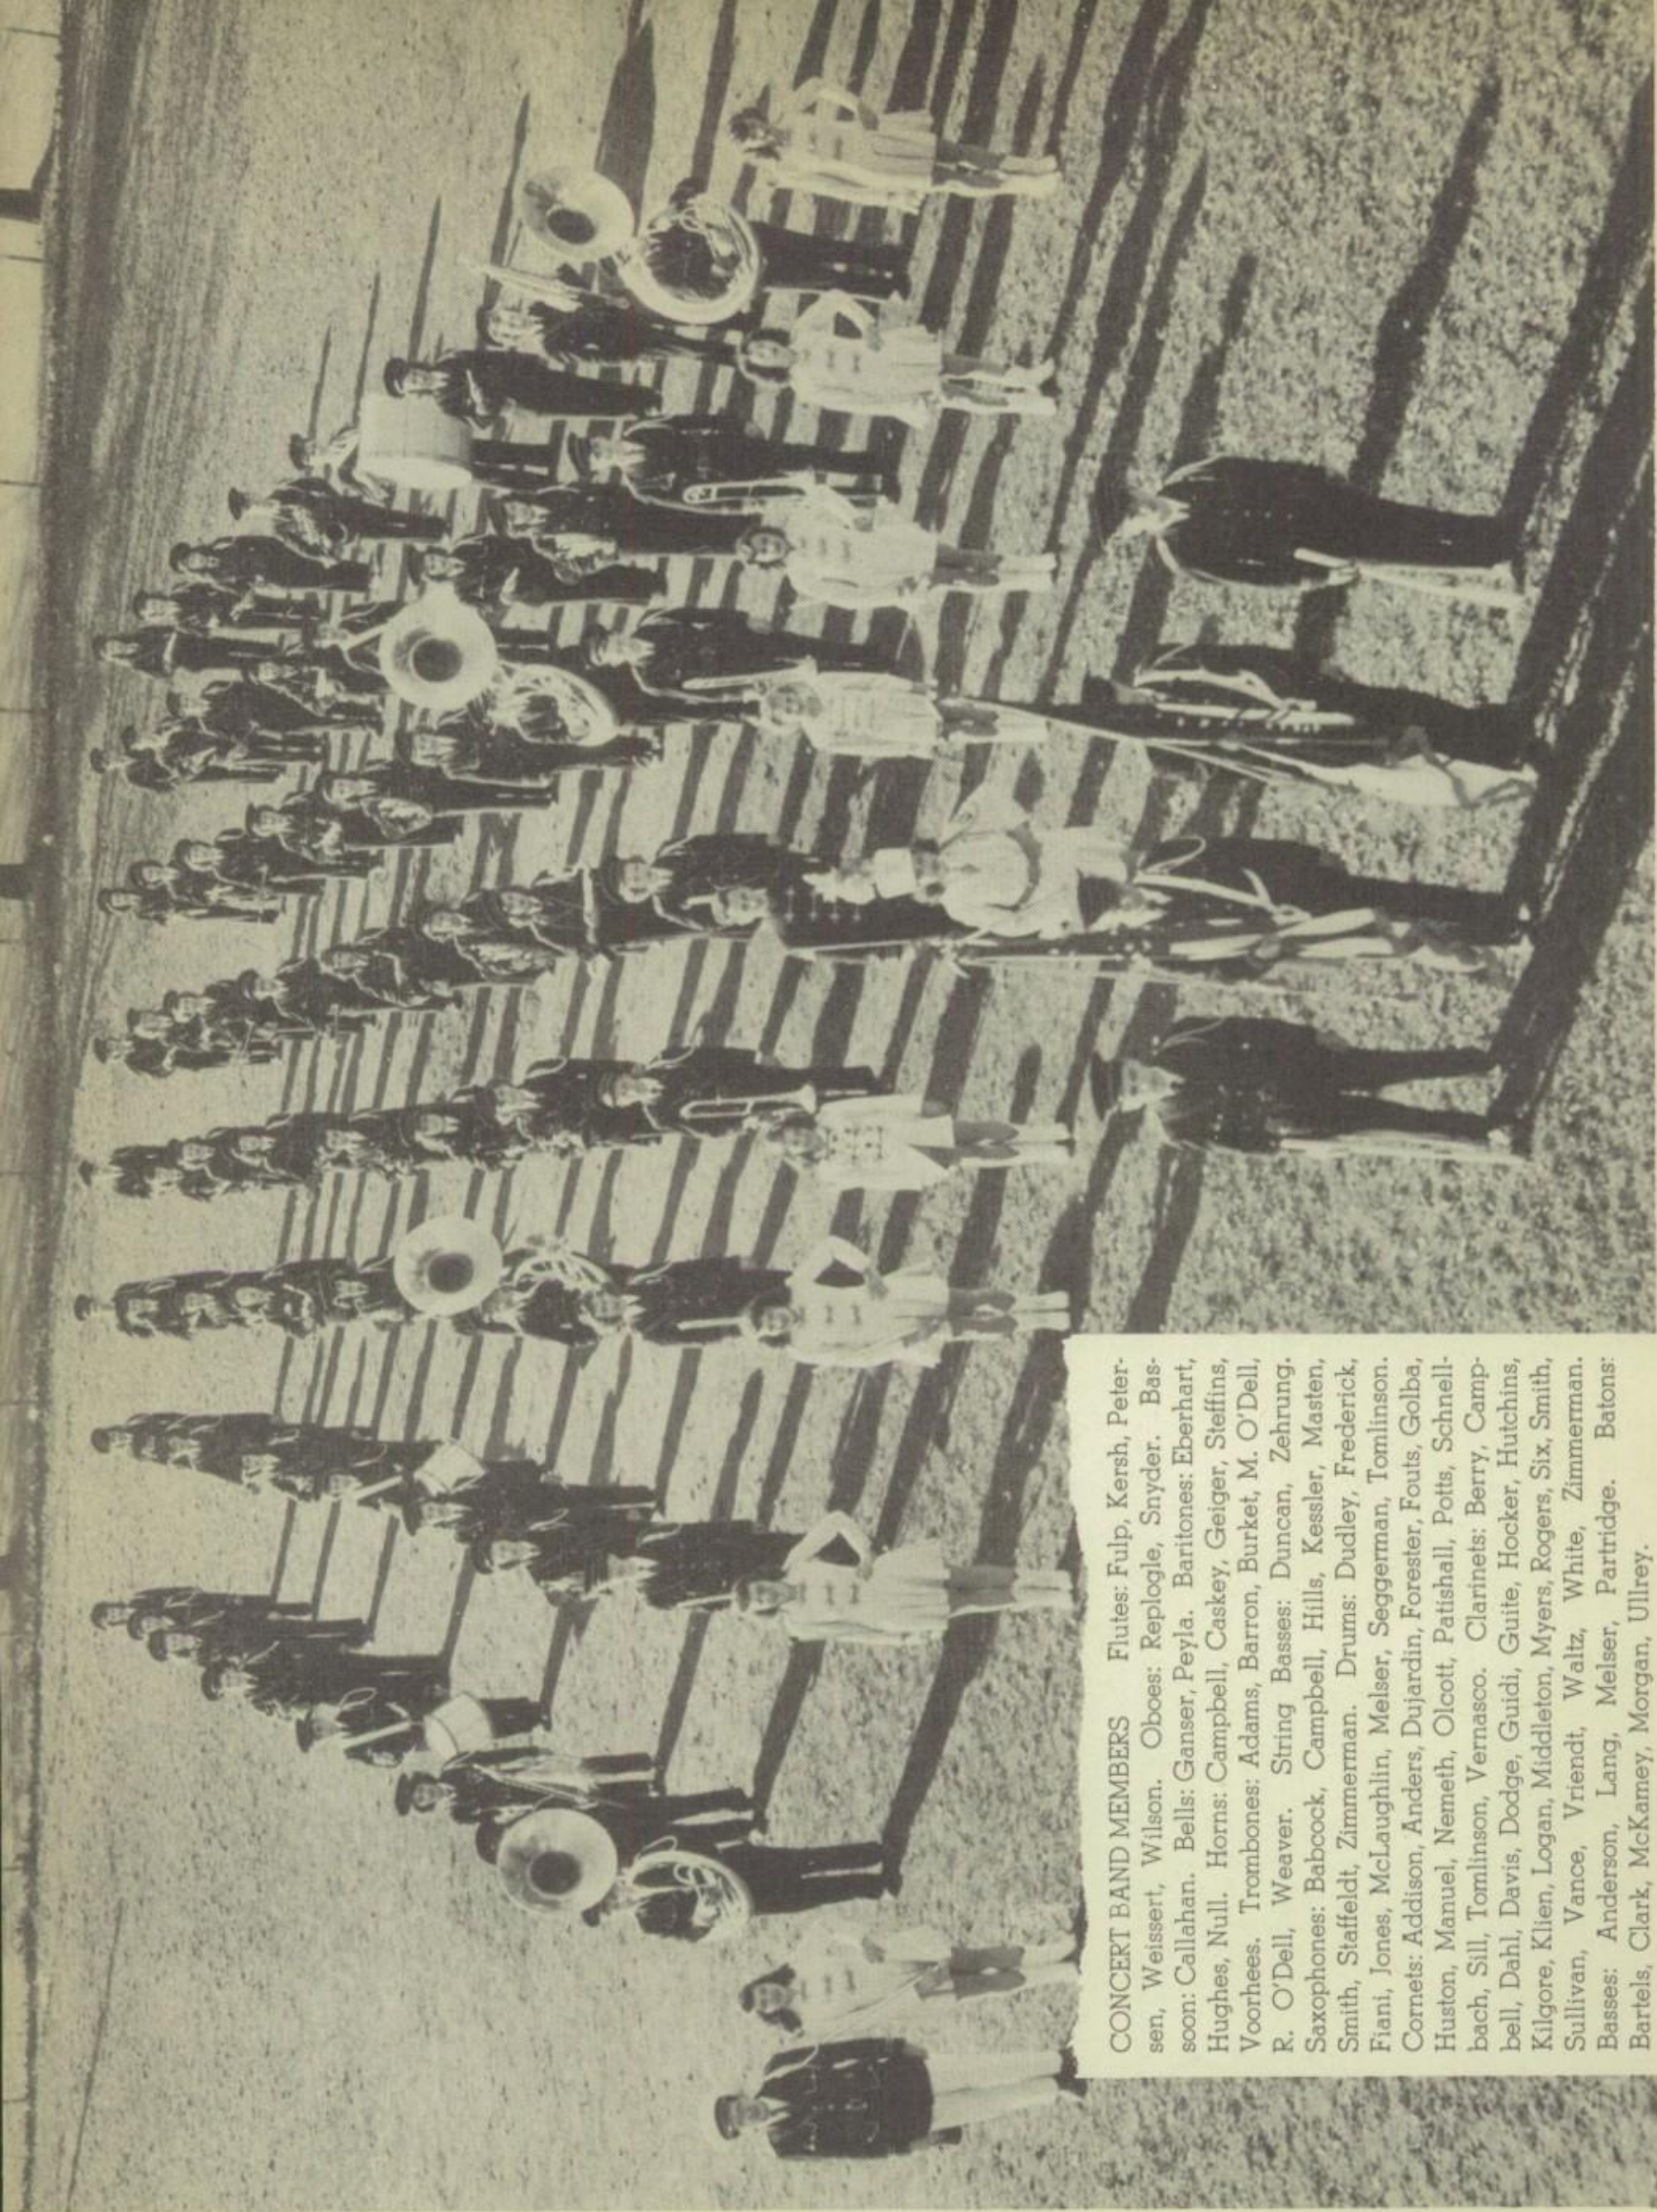

Vocal music which is studied and enjoyed by the choruses and the glee clubs, reaches the heights in a performance by the robed choir. Chosen from the choir as a small singing unit are the Cecelians. Both of these groups, along with the orchestra, appear before the students in assembly and again in the Spring Concert before the general public. Their particular service to the community, however, lies in the times without number when high school musicians sing and play for club meetings, dinners, and church affairs. Miss Lucine Jones directs both the choir and the Cecelians.

Special awards representing 3,000 merits were given this year to Violet Gulyanics and Jeanette Vance. Pins representing 2,000 merits went to Betty Foster, Violet Gulyanics, Alyce Hasson, Ellen Johnson, Carol Vance, Jeanette Vance, and Jean Wedsworth.

THE CECELIANS — Standing: Hoffman, Behnke, Wedsworth, Vance, Foster, Sweeny, Rosenthal. Seated: Funk, Smiley, Daugherty.

Band

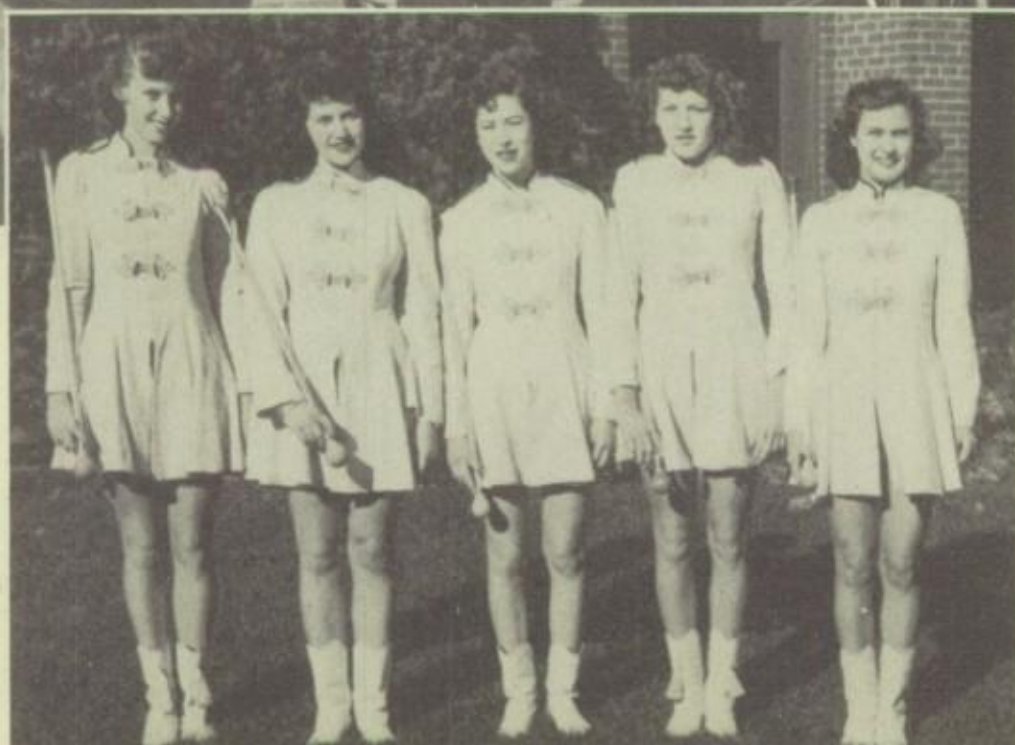

The MHS Band, numbering ninety pieces, is expected not only to march at football games in the fall, entertain at pep sessions, trot out its "Little German" unit for P. T. A. meetings, but also to prepare a full dress concert twice yearly. Band officers are Max Burket, president; Edward Hills, vice-president; and secretary, Kathryn Guite. Fourteen seniors received sweaters as awards for good service. Their names are: Max Burket, Dorothy Campbell, Virginia Dahl, Polly Fouts, Virginia Ganser, Kathryn Guite, Darl Kaiser, Pat Kilgore, Betty Klein, Grace Kring, Yvonne Six, Phyllis Smith, Cora Anne Tomlinson, Maryann Vriendt. Outstanding members are: the Misses Tomlinson, Dahl; Klein, and the O'Dells, Fred Replogle, and Dick Anderson who plays that great big horn.

CARRYING THE COLORS

BATON TWIRLERS

"Seven Sisters"

The senior play, directed by Miss Emily Davidson, was a gay, humorous affair. Jerry Probst held the lead. Jean Wedsworth, Jeanne Ward, Darlene Kaiser, Patricia Kilgore, Theresa Ganser, Betty Tripple and Rexetta Shetterly were the other sisters. John Hulecki carried the male lead.

Tripple, Shetterly, Ganser, Kilgore, Probst, Wedsworth, Kaiser, Serge, Hulecki, Rifkin, Bauer, Hills, Ward and Goodman appear in these glances at "Seven Sisters".

"Feathers in a Gale"

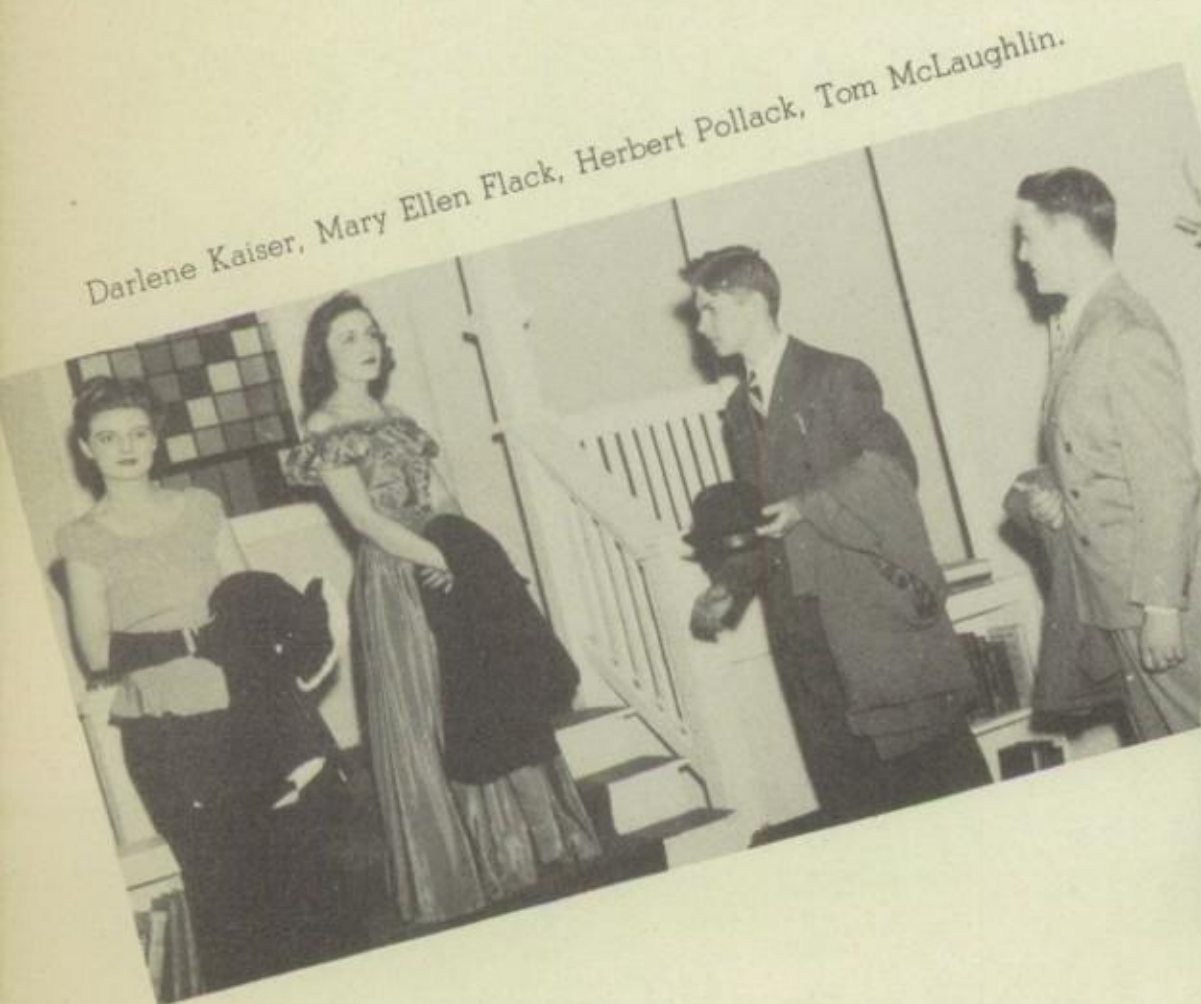

"Feathers In A Gale," the Junior Class Play, also directed by Miss Davidson, centers around a grim custom called the "widows vendue," according to which if a widow fell in debt before making a second catch, she was put up for auction to be sold as a domestic to the highest bidder. The highlight of the production was its interesting Cape Cod setting. Performing in the unique setting were characters such as flirtatious Annabelle, winsome Phoebe, forthright Matilda, and others who were snoop, gossip, or righteous. Frivolous Annabelle, played by Mary De Roo, and her two friends shocked the prim neighborhood, for Annabelle set her cap for a handsome sea captain, Phil Matz, and her friends helped her. Excitement, comedy, and deep understanding made this play a real hit with everyone.

These scenes from "Feathers in a Gale" show De Roo, Matz, Wardell, Lemler, Pease and Whitmer as well as the entire cast and stage crew.

"Stage Door"

The play, "Stage Door" centered around the struggle in a girl's mind whether to leave the legitimate stage and go into movies where she could earn huge amounts of money or wait for success on the stage. A cast of thirty, all members of Thespians and Speech Club, produced a stirring play, directed by Miss Emily K. Davidson. It was set in the Footlights Club, a home for young actresses. Terry Randall, played by Phyllis Albright, wanted to be an actress and would settle for nothing less. Other girls grew discouraged, some were married, others went home, one went to Hollywood, and one committed suicide. David Kingsley, portrayed by John Hulecki, fell in love with Terry and used his influence to get her the big part—all that she needed to make her a famous actress.

National Honor Society

The MHS chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in 1929. Chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, and character, it is possible to gain entrance during the junior year. Failing that, a candidate may be elected either the first or second semester of his senior year. First semester officers were: Ralph Broman, president; Dick Kempner, vice-president; Shirley Breiler, secretary. The second semester incumbants were: Bill Roggeman, president; Dwight Wygant, vice-president; Jean Wedsworth, secretary. Mrs. Roy Kohler is faculty sponsor.

Second Row: Lovett Wedsworth, Kempner, Broman, Krueckeberg, Marsee, Behnke, Reschke, Stroup. First Row: Shirk, Breiler, Davis, Gulyanics, Steif.

The Alltold

In a school such as this one where some students come early and leave early and others do not arrive until noon, there is need for a smart little newspaper like the "Alltold" to let the masses know what goes on. News has been so plentiful that the extra sheet has become a permanent fixture in spite of the continual struggle to find enough paper to print it on. Anyhow, it is a characteristic of the human race to want to read about an event even when one has seen it happen. Miss Leila Heimbach is the faculty sponsor.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll is the national honorary society for high school journalists. Ruth Evans was the only member left over from last year. New members from the Alltold staff are Martha Fuller, Violet Gulyanics, Beverly Hunter, Janice Miller, Virginia Parrott, Charles Richardson, Mary Stroup, Lois Hoskins, and Jeanette Vance. Those from the Miskodeed staff are Cecile Davis, Rosemarie Moore, Bonita Schlegel, Jeannine Shirk, Margaret Steif, Jeanne Ann Ward, and Jean Wedsworth.

Thespians, Troup 496

The National Thespian Troupe 496 was organized in 1942 to give adequate recognition to students who excel in dramatics. New Thespians wear their blue and yellow corsages proudly and bow and scrape before seasoned members at initiation time. Traditional is the trip to Chicago to see a cast of professionals perform. This year, Ethel Barrymore captured their hearts in "The Joyous Season." Something new this past year has been the luncheon meetings. Members can talk over their problems better after one of those delicious plate lunches from the cafeteria. Every month, too, they gather at the home of one of the members to discuss current plays, stage make-up, Shakespeare, and all the other things dear to an actor's heart, for the society's aim is to create a spirit of active and intelligent interest in dramatics among students in high schools all over the United States. The sponsor is Miss Emily Davidson.

Speech Club

The Speech Club, sponsored by Miss Emily Davidson, promotes interest and participation in all speech activities. The club also provides the funds needed to carry on the debate program. There are seventy-five members this year and as usual the new members were admitted after try-outs. In addition to the yearly play given in conjunction with the Thespians, the club brought Mrs. Irene Pyle Millar to read a play for a student assembly. Officers for the year were John Krueckeberg, president; Dwight Wygant, vice-president; Emily Behnke, secretary-treasurer.

Second Row: Goodman, Kronewitter, Richardson, Rifkin, Rosenwasser. First Row: Arthur Brown, Bickel, Weissert, Reva Brown, Sandvold (standing).

It was a good season for Mr. Douglas Hall's debaters. With 80 points, they tied for second place in the St. Joseph County League. South Bend Central took first place with 85 points, having lost only twice and both times to the Mishawakans. Reva Brown, Charles Goodman, and Mary Ruth Sandvold were especially able members of the MHS team.

This three-year-old organization provides operators for classroom movies especially. Admission is a foregone conclusion if a boy can operate the complicated machine and carry the heavy thing about from place to place. Their aim is to show a movie without breaking anything. Mr. Wood is the sponsor.

MOVIE OPERATORS

Standing: Nevel, Weglowski, Felton, Schnabel, Claudy, Mowiser, Eller. Seated: Brown, Ludwig, Gygi, Rhodes, Keb, Rifkin, Rosenwasser.

Future Teachers of America

Organized last year, the Future Teachers of America now have a membership of about thirty. The masculine element isn't lacking, for there are about as many boys as girls. The club attracts students who have decided to become teachers or those who think they would like to do so. Some of the members have been doing practice teaching at the elementary schools in the city. As a group, they claim they do not foresee the day when formal schooling will be dispensed with in favor of movies and the radio. Miss Emily Barracks is the sponsor. Margaret Petersen is president, Ross Jennings is vice-president, Nancy Jo Shirk is secretary, and JoAnn Eberhart is treasurer.

Art Club

It is difficult to find the line of demarcation between the activities of the Art Club, the art department, and the students with artistic talent. Just a few students take care of the terrific amount of poster work, party decorations, and kindred needs, and they do it in their spare time. The club members like to do sketching and this year they were the center of interest at the mid-semester Student Council dance, the Clubber's Jamboree, where they set up a booth decorated with charcoal sketches of faculty members and quantities of blue and white paper. Jim Holderman has been a very popular president. Miss Alice Baker is the sponsor. Dolores Termont is vice president, and Joan Zimmer is secretary-treasurer.

Science Club

From such a large club one might expect a good deal of activity, and such is the case. Each division, the Physics section sponsored by Mr. Darl Wood, the Chemistry section sponsored by Mr. William Ulmer, and the Biology section sponsored by Mr. Earl Stine, follows its own course of lectures and associated activities. The club treated the students to an hour-long movie of former Governor Pinchot's cruise to the South Seas. One of the outstanding members, Bob Lovett, was elected secretary-treasurer of the Indiana Junior Academy of Science. This year's officers were Phil Matz, president; Jean Wedsworth, secretary-treasurer; Dick Kempner, vice-president.

Commercial Club

Club Officers and Committee Chairmen — Standing: Steffens, Bohdan, Klein, Berry, Behnke, DeVlieghe, Smith, McQueen. Seated: Sinkovics, Hassan, Wiltfong, Wishon, Jojo, Vandervelt, Dundon.

The 200 members of the Commercial Club are interested in anything which will better prepare them for a future in the business world. Their program consists of lectures on business subjects, parties with skits and other fun-producing devices, and the great night on which the banquet takes place. For weeks the committees have been talking over plans for decorating; the club sponsor, Miss Martha Miller, makes frequent trips to the cafeteria to arrange the menu; and on the great occasion the departmental awards are presented—always too late for them to be printed here. Wanda Wishon was the president, Elaine Berlincourt, the vice-president; and Eva Mae Jojo, the secretary-treasurer.

Mexican Scene at the Clubber's Jamboree.

For several years there has been considerable demand for such a modern language club. This year the officers wrote a constitution, and before long a full-sized program should be possible. Thus far, most of the moving pictures and the singing and the record playing have been a part of the class program. Club officers are Rosemarie Moore, president; Joan Kurzhals, secretary-treasurer; and Max Zimmerman, vice-president. Miss Lola Jane Rosenberger is club sponsor.

Spanish Club

Forum Club

Standing: Wardell, Ward, Sandvold, Klein, Callsen, Brown, Futter, Brown, Jennings, Wedsworth, Goethals, Tripple. Seated: Eddy, Kelley, Richardson, Guite, Goodman, Shirk, Moore.

The Forum Club is a small organization composed of twenty-six members who are interested in current problems and their solution. The club was originally organized for juniors and seniors. In 1944 a freshman-sophomore section was organized. Because of the lack of a sponsor this section was discontinued this year; however, any freshman or sophomore who desired to join the junior-senior section was allowed to do so.

The aim of the club is to arouse interest in national and international affairs. Mr. Joseph Menez, a post-graduate at the University of Notre Dame, who gave an enlightening talk on the race problem, was one of the outstanding speakers of the year.

The officers, under the direction of Mr. Douglas Hall, were Dottie Loucas, president; Jeannine Shirk, vice-president; and Rosemarie Moore, secretary-treasurer.

Engineering Club

All the shops in the vocational department of the high school are open to the club members who work at any project that involves engineering. The boys aim to keep in touch with the industrial, mechanical, and scientific world, but they are not above stopping their work when a pretty girl goes by. Their sponsor is Mr. Robert Warring; their president is Clem Leniski; their secretary is Don De Raeve.

Stage Crew

Standing: Shirk, H. Ludwig, Davis, Schnabel, Mr. Yaw, Smith, Gygi, Bates. Kneeling: A. Ludwig, Reaker, Artson, Breit.

"Just good boys" is Mr. Lowell Yaw's only requirement for admission to the hard-working stage crew. The eleven fellows spend long hours and even go without meals when there is a play in progress, and they do whatever is necessary to ready the stage equipment for assemblies as well as plays.

Ushers Club

Standing: Beehler, Tavernier, Logan, Jennings, Kronewitter.
Seated: Cloyd Partridge, Enfield, Anderson.

The Ushers Club is a service organization whose members serve year after year for plays, programs, and commencements. Those who have served for two or three years wear the natty maroon and white uniform with a white chevron on the sleeve for each year of service. Ralph Broman is captain and Jack Tavernier is co-captain. Mr. Armin Amos is sponsor.

Hall Guides

Standing: Sill, Doyle, Claudy, Aldefer, Shirk, Straughn, Shaw, Landgraf, Rodgers, Yacko.
Seated: Steif, Fulper, Brown, Yerrick, Duncan, Beehler, Jennings, Connon.

The Hall Guides, under the supervision of Miss Helen Stoddart, with Nancy Jo Shirk as president, and Elwood Beehler as treasurer, man ten posts throughout the building every hour during the school day. They run errands, guide visitors, help regulate stairway traffic, assist with fire drills, and maintain order. As a rule they give very efficient and cheerful service.

Girl Reserves

The Girl Reserves, with its 229 members, is the largest organization in the school. Miss Beulah Buchanan, the head sponsor, is assisted by Miss Mary Dunn, senior sponsor; Miss Hester Means, junior sponsor; Miss Anna Monhaut, freshman sponsor; and Miss Esther Nugent, sophomore sponsor. Rosemary Doyle, president; Gloria Pickavet, vice-president; Vivian Balestri, treasurer; Rose Serge, secretary; and Margaret Petersen, sergent-at-arms, are the competent officers. Our president, Rosemary Doyle, was chosen president of the Inter-Club Girl Reserve Council of St. Joseph County. The Recognition Service and Tea for the Girl Reserve mothers, the decorating of the halls at Christmas, and the Pre-Easter Service are a few of the annual events which are long remembered by every Girl Reserve. The girls aim "to face life squarely; to find and give the best."

Senior Hi-Y

Standing: Bucher, Kempner, Barnard, Hickey, Steffof, Hulecki, Stuller, Partridge, Marsee, Benjamin, Roggeman. Seated: Piraccini, Zimmerman, Johnson, Phenegar, Wade, Bodine, Van Ooteghem, Wiekamp, Brown, Van Nevel, Stoffelen.

The Hi-Y, a social and service organization, first appeared in Mishawaka High School more than twenty-five years ago. This year they arranged to show the movie "Charm, Manners, plus Personality" to the student body for an assembly, and the students found it enjoyable and informative. As is customary, the boys dabbled in dances, Christmas decorations, community singing, and elected the Football Queen and her court. Al Piraccini was this year's president, Bob Bucher served as vice-president, Dick Kempner guarded the treasury, Bob Enfield wrote the minutes of the meetings, Jim Steffof was the chaplain, and Ed Hickey acted as sergent-at-arms. Mr. Everett Sprague was faculty advisor.

The Junior Hi-Y members second the efforts of the senior group, help them now and then, and work at preparing themselves for taking over the burdens of the Senior Hi-Y. John Wedsworth was this year's president, Ray Wardell, the vice-president; Don Orlosky, the secretary; Mike Yacko, the treasurer, and Mr. William Ulmer, the sponsor.

Willing Workers

There are some students who give willingly of their time to serve the school by answering telephones, taking messages, checking attendance, running errands, and other small but important tasks.

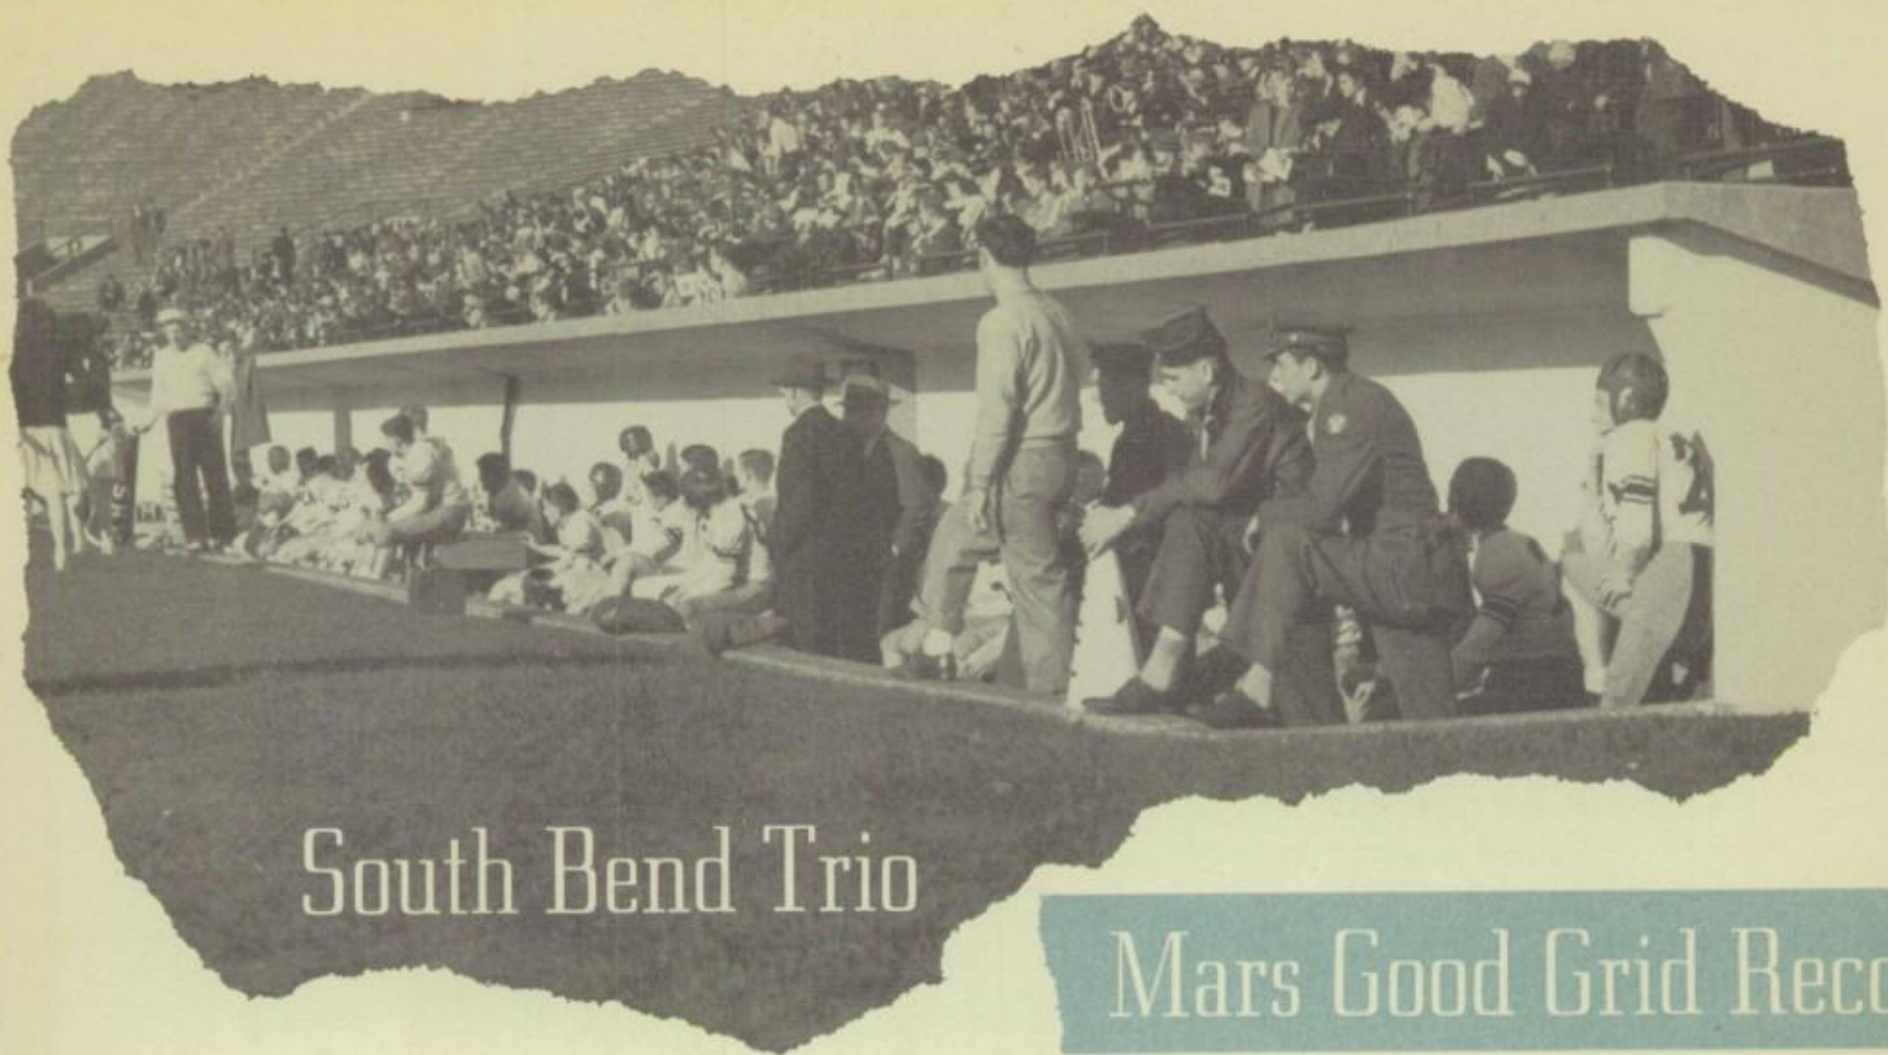

In the principal's office are Pat Burket, Gail Kersh, Nancy Schnabel, Betty Trippel, Virginia Parrott, Virginia Barkes, and Nancy King. In the nurse's office are Margie Wiltfong, who has worked for the nurse since the eighth grade, Verna Potts, Wanda Wishon, Aurilla Harlin, Pat Callsen, Marilyn Gunnett, and Ellen Johnson. Working for the deans are Shirley Orser, Mary Ruth Sandvold, Rosemarie Moore, and Jeannine Shirk in Miss Wilson's office; Joyce Whitmer, Connie Vanderlin, Nan Garrison, Ruth Teegarden, and Betty Hoffman in Mr. Chapman's office. Helping the head sponsors are Lois Gradeless, Donna Weber, and Violet Gulyanics. In the athletic office are Marjorie Weisweaver, Georgianna Richardson, and Billie Jo Miller in Miss Goodwin's office; Mary Ann Reschke, Phyllis Booher, Sally Shephard, and Alyce Hassan in Mr. Steele's office.

South Bend Trio

Mars Good Grid Record

Another M. H. S. football season has come to an end with the Cavemen overcoming six of their nine opponents. There were heartbreaking losses to Riley, Washington, and Flowers & Co. of Central, who again maintained the hickory stick by winning 39-12.

Again the Maroons have suffered a season of injuries. If the Maroons had not had such luck, they might have made it tougher for Central and Riley, and even defeated Washington. Most of the injuries were leg injuries, which definitely handicapped the team.

Although crippled at times throughout the season, the Maroons came out with a fair year. M. H. S. opened its schedule against Adams whom they had no trouble defeating by two touchdowns. During the game George Fowler broke his nose, but in a few weeks he was as good as ever. Then came that Riley game which no one will ever forget. The Maroons played hard but Riley played a little harder and came out on top. The team as a whole looked good on offense but lacked that punch in defense, although Red Rogge-man did some fine defensive playing.

Mishawaka got back into the winning streak by beating North Side of Fort Wayne by a score of 35-13. The fellows didn't have too much trouble whipping them. With the fast, hard running of Bud Hickey and Bob Barnard, the Cavemen had quite a night. They also had a swell time coming home from Fort Wayne. We wonder if Coach Arndt got much sleep on the way home with the fellows singing (?) most of the way.

The following Saturday night M. H. S. dropped a close one to Washington. The team played very well, but there were a few small mistakes that cost them the game, and the Maroons came out on the short end of a 7-0 score.

The following weeks saw M. H. S. defeat both Goshen and Elkhart with a very much improved team. There was outstanding playing by Pete Benjamin, Boots Oppelt, and Slingshot Jim Steffoff.

Then came that fine Saturday afternoon in which Flowers & Co. spoiled the day for all Mishawaka fans by trouncing them 39-12. Mishawaka fans saw a new and different team come back in the second half, after a bad first half, and play ball like a team who had that "do or die" spirit. However, the first half was just too much to overcome. It is now up to the team of '46 to make up for the loss of the 1945 game, and may they have the best of hunting!

The following Saturday, October 27th, the Cavemen took its big trip of the season and upset Central Catholic of Detroit by the score of 25-7. Although Central Catholic had been rated as one of the outstanding high school football teams, the strong and determined Cavemen ruined their season. The team had quite a time in Detroit that week, and if you don't believe me, ask any of the players. Then on Sunday they saw the Detroit Lions play the Chicago Bears. They also stopped and gave Michigan University a going over to round out the trip.

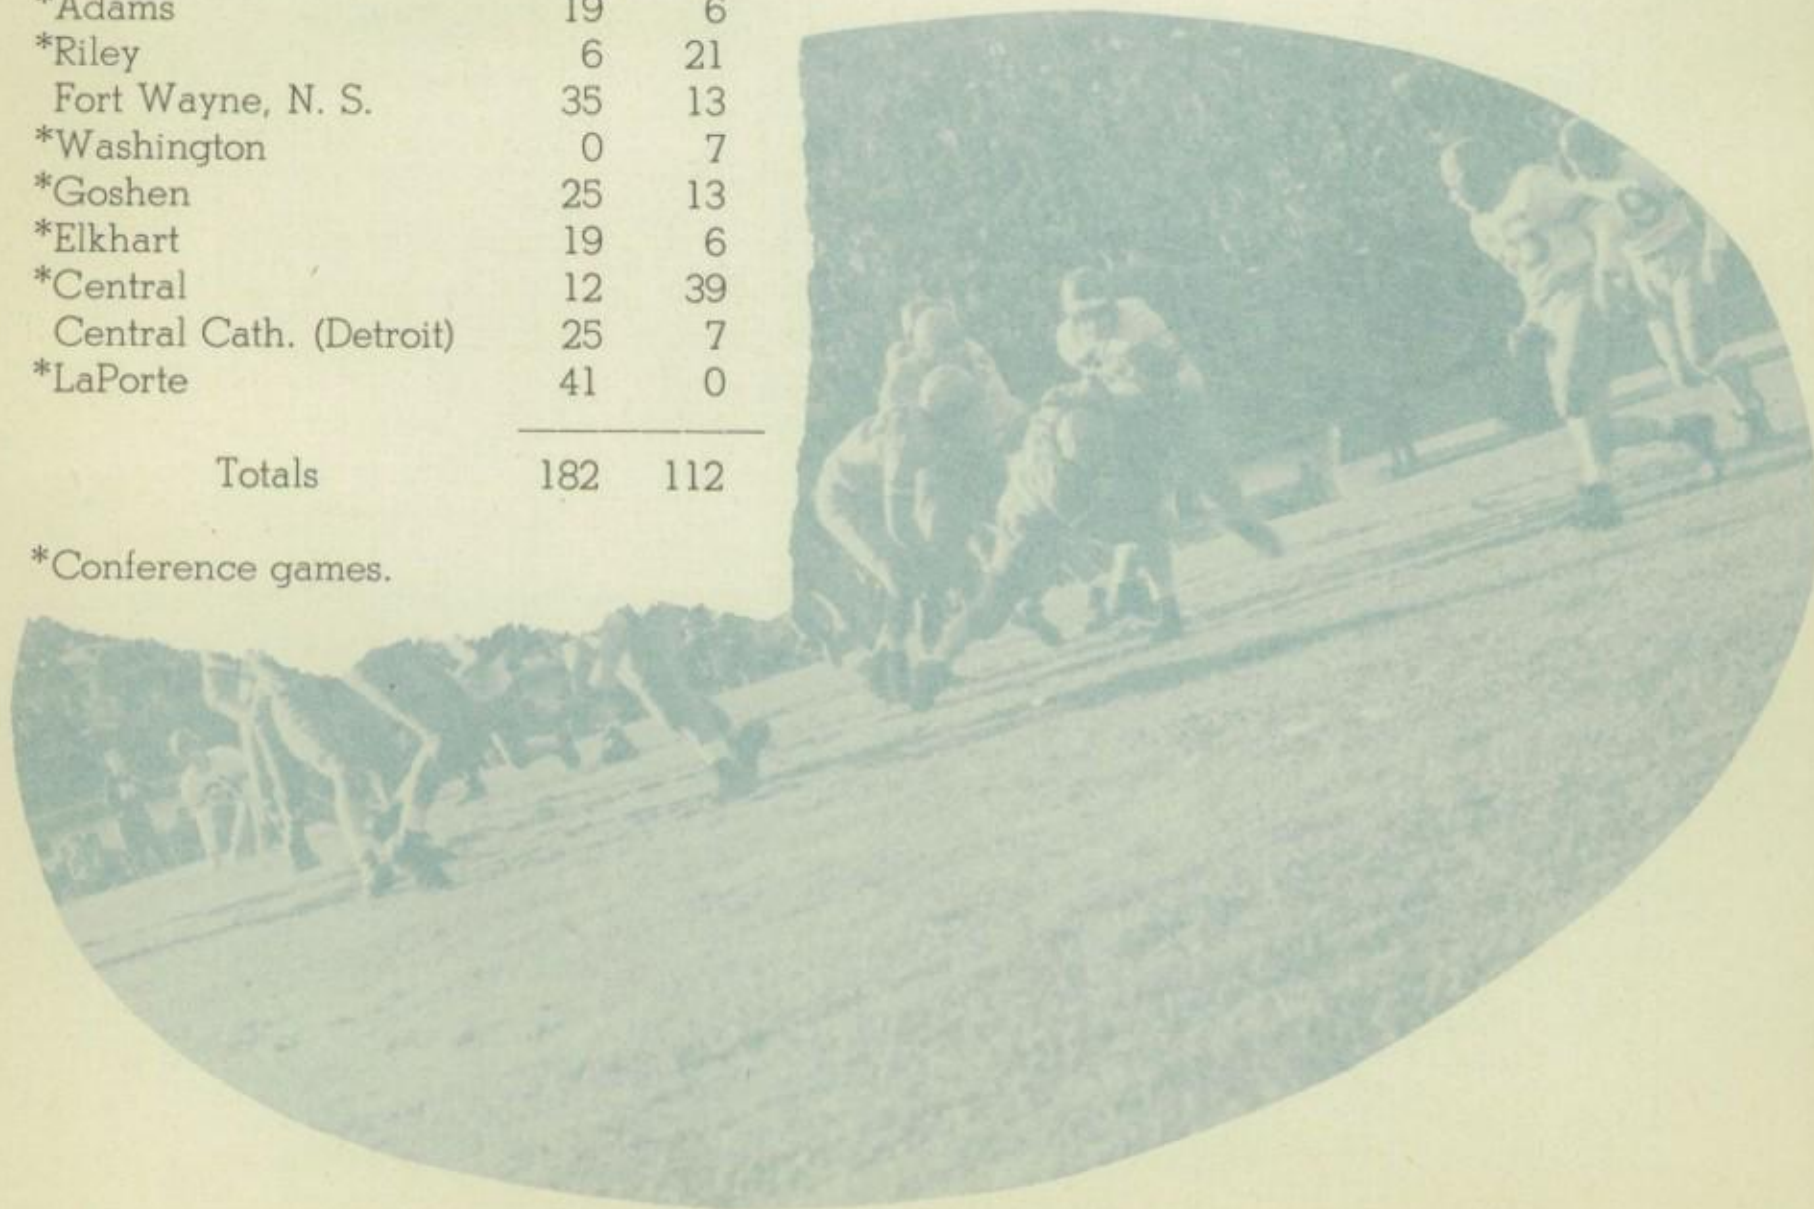

The following week, November 2, saw Mishawaka rated the underdog against LaPorte. But the Cavemen again turned in a brilliant performance to whip LaPorte, 41-0. The second string was also responsible for two of these six touchdowns. This brought to an end Mishawaka's 1945 football season.

Mishawaka may not have come out on top, but they made their opponents know that they had to fight to beat them. And we, the students of Mishawaka, offer our appreciation for the fine fighting spirit our team had.

The 1945 co-captains elected were Gerald Benjamin and "Red" Roggeman. Bob Barnard was elected as the most valuable player of the year.

Bob Barnard, Gerald Benjamin, Emil Pozwilka were awarded their second sweaters for sports participation.

Letters were given to Ralph De Meyer, Rodney Fassett, George Fowler, Edward Hickey, Leo Kelter, Clem Leniski, William Mathias, Raymond Oppelt, James Petersen, Alfio Piraccini, Herbert Pollock, Noble Rhoutsong, Bill Roggeman, James Steffoff, Pete Stoffelen.

Don Orlosky received a manager's letter and Robert Enfield was awarded a manager's sweater. Robert Gerald and Duane Kollar received their manager's monograms.

When berths for the mythical all-state teams were selected, M. H. S. placed one man on the squad and that was fullback Bob Barnard. Barnard and guard "Red" Roggeman were selected for the South Bend Tribune's annual twin-city football team. End Pete Benjamin received honorable mention.

Basketball has Ups and Downs

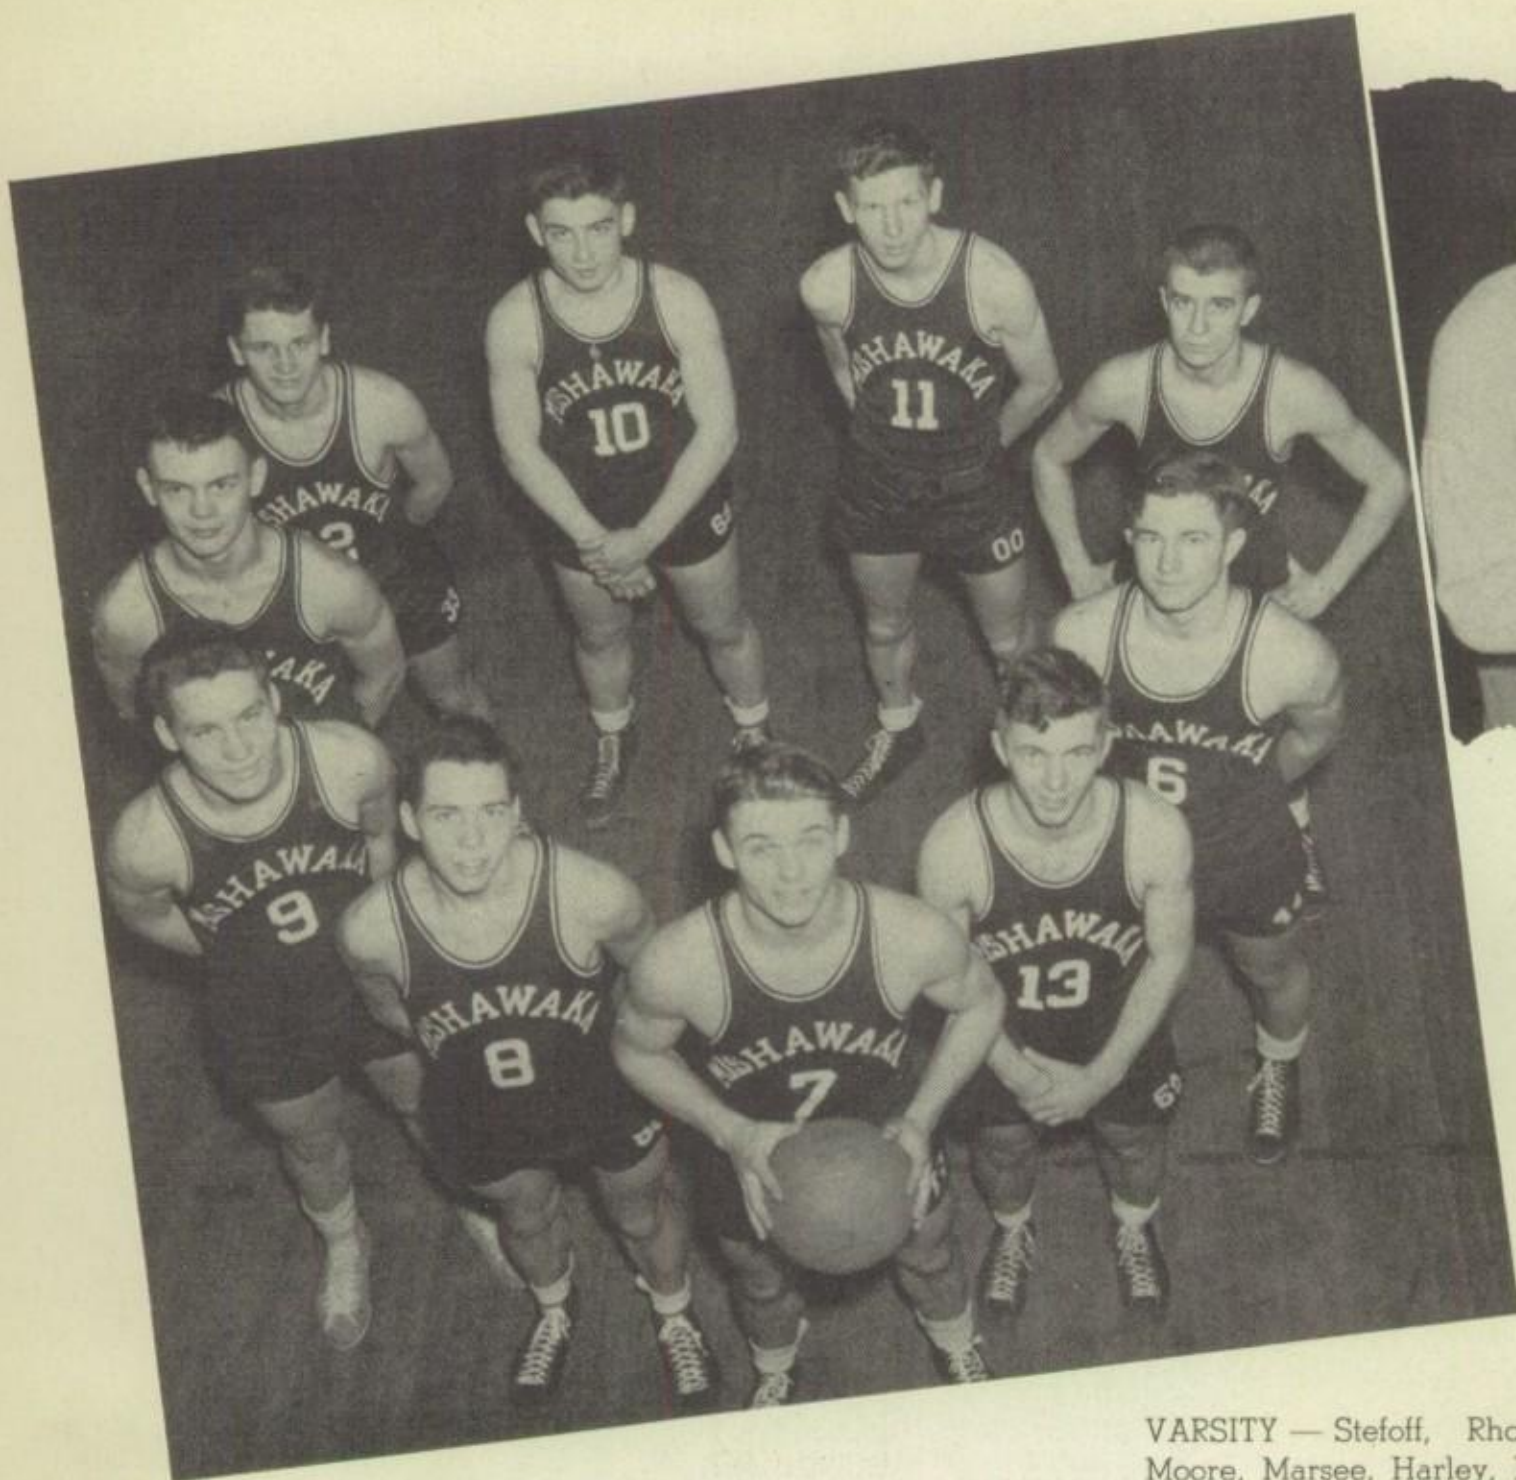

Is it the chummy atmosphere of the gym that attracts more people to basketball games than most other sports of the year? Could it be the fast and uncertain action of the game? Maybe both, but whatever it is, it really draws the crowds. In practically every game, the Mishawaka Maroons played to capacity crowds.

After dropping the opening contest to Plymouth on their home floor, the Cavemen played host to the John Adams' Eagles and defeated their foes by a score of 38 to 30. The following Thursday, Struck's men met with Central's Bruins and, sparked by Marsee, turned back the Bears with a 31 to 25 score. Traveling to Gary, the Maroons invaded a tough squad of Lew Wallace boys and fell victim to them by a decisive 56 to 30 score.

In the first conference game, Mishawaka got back in the winning column by downing the Goshen Redskins 35 to 27 on the latter's floor. In their second league tilt, Mishawaka ran into a strong Riley crew and fell by the wayside by a 38 to 20 count. The following week, with Marsee spearheading the attack, Mishawaka came out with a victory over a stubborn Nappanee team. The final score was 40 to 35.

On January the fourth, the Maroons were gunning for their second victory over the South Bend John Adams' Eagles, but fell short to their superior play. When the gun sounded ending the game, the score read 32 to 30, Adams the victor. With captain Marsee out of the line-up, Mishawaka was drubbed by a powerful Elkhart team 32 to 44, on the latter's hardwood. Mishawaka, lead by Marsee, downed a highly regarded North Side Fort Wayne team in an over-time game here by a score of 36 to 34. Larry Phenegar provided the game's winning basket. The following week, "Dutch" Struck's boys ran roughshod over a supposedly strong LaPorte team by a deciding score of 45 to 27. The game was played on the local hardwood floor. Mishawaka's conference record then read, four wins and three losses.

The Maroons went out to seek more "bear meat" at the cost of the Central Bears, but were turned back by a wave of baskets made by Bob Adams for Central. It evened Mishawaka's conference wins and losses at four apiece. The following Saturday, braced with the return of Noble Rhoutsong to the line up, the Cavemen defeated a highly touted Auburn team to the tune of 50 to 40. Marsee and Harley led the attack. In the ninth league game for the Maroons, Mishawaka turned back the offerings of the Michigan City Red Devils with a 56 to 44 score. Harley, Rhoutsong, and Marsee were the point getters for the locals.

Madison Township found the road a little rough while trying to defeat our boys and were turned back with a 39 to 27 rout. Harley again led the scorers. A strong Gary Froebel team journeyed to Mishawaka and afterwards wished they had stayed at home. They, too, bowed to the Maroons, led by veteran Marsee with a 47 to 42 score.

In the Maroons' last conference tilt on the Adams' floor, Washington High of South Bend found it tough going and fell to the Cavemen by a 37 to 32 count. Culver came to town for the Maroons' last game of the season and, in a very closely played contest, came out on top with a 30 to 31 victory.

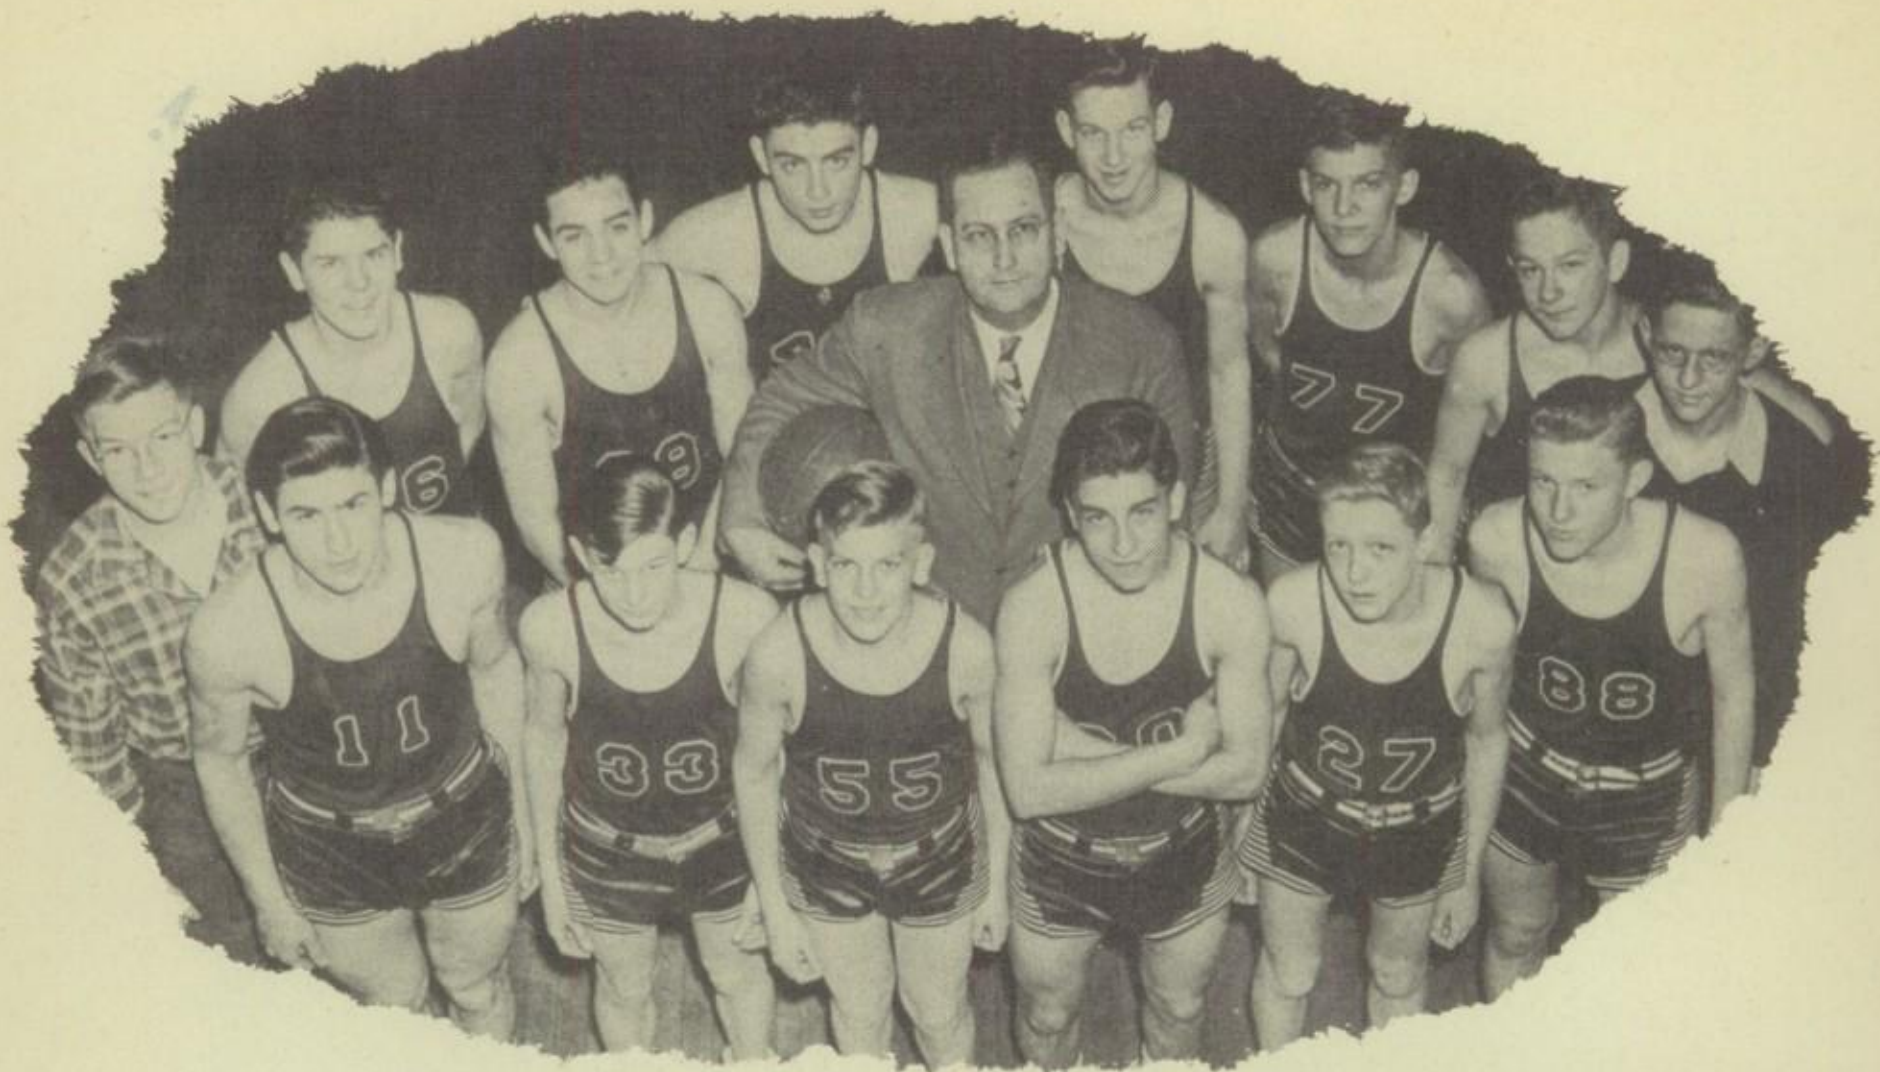

The season closed with the Maroons winning eleven games while dropping seven games. This excludes tourney games.

In the sectional tourney, Mishawaka, sparked by its big center, Marsee, downed a spirited Central Catholic team, 56 to 40. Bud whipped in seventeen points. In their next game, Washington proved too tough for our boys and they fell off the ladder to the superior play of the Panthers by a close score, 39 to 34. Central of South Bend went on to win the tourney.

Coach "Dutch" Thurston's cross country team started their practice about the first of September. Paced by Frank Michels, these boys worked out at Merrifield Park, at Eberhart Golf Course, and on the Tupper Field track. Cross country differs from track in that there is no straight and level course to run on, and the distance is always two miles.

Mishawaka held their home meets at Eberhart Golf Course this year instead of Merrifield Park, which was used in the 1944 season. It was always interesting to see what the "away" meets would be like, since the courses differed from ours. However, they were all two miles long, and sometimes, when the weather was rather more than chilly, the runners didn't have an easy time.

Frank Michels usually led the MHS squad, and he was followed by Cloyd Partridge and Ralph Broman.

Cross country is a sport which lacks the color and excitement, the applause of the crowd, commonly associated with inter-school sports competition. However, most of the boys agreed that it was certainly worth while.

At the close of the season, a picnic was held at Van Tilbury's, south of town. Here letters were given to Ralph Broman, Frank Michels, Cloyd Partridge, Bob Lovett, Jim Haughee, and Don Miles. Monograms were awarded to Jack Davis, Bob Bucher, Harley Eckert, Pat Burns, Al Deschamphlaere, Walter Jaqua, Bill Etherton, and Don Paul. Dick Dennison and Dwight Wygant received their sweaters.

Results of the meets are as follows: Lowest score wins.

In the spring of 1945, the track team was molded almost entirely of underclassmen. These boys worked hard, but their lack of age and experience proved costly when the final tallies were made. However, these boys do not like to give excuses, and they are determined to prove themselves this year.

There were four seniors who proved valuable to the team. They were Duke Maltby and Tom Freeze, both shot-putters, Norman Hahn, hurdler, and Willie Roberts, 440 dash and mile relay man.

Mishawaka lost the sectional meet for the second time in fourteen years. We had only one representative at the state meet, and that was Larry Gates. Larry pole-vaulted eleven feet to come in second in the sectional meet held at Tupper Field. There are many juniors and underclassmen who promise to give good account of themselves this season.

Fifteen members of the squad received letter awards. First sweaters were given to Dick Bonne, Ralph Broman, Frank Michels, Cloyd Partridge, and Willie Roberts. Tom Freeze, Norman Hahn, and Duke Maltby won their second sweaters. Seven of the boys received monograms, and sixteen numerals were awarded. The squad gave "Dutch" Thurston a golf jacket in appreciation of the work he did with the team.

Little Known Facts

Mishawaka High School students have been playing football and basketball since around 1900. It was not until after 1920 that the name CAVEMAN was used. The name first appeared on a large banner out at Cartier Field, Notre Dame, when MHS played South Bend Central.

Mr. Baker, although he played football for MHS, was a basketball enthusiast. Inter-class basketball was the favorite sport in those days when "Bake" was known as "dead eye" because of his accuracy in shooting baskets.

In the late 1920's, girl athletes carried on vigorous competition in volleyball, baseball, and hockey. They also ventured on the cinder path to run the 100 yard dash, and try the broad and high jumps.

In 1927 the basketball team won both the sectional and regional tournaments and played one game in the State Finals.

Mr. Hatcher used to coach the tennis team, and in 1937 his team garnered the Northern Indiana championship.

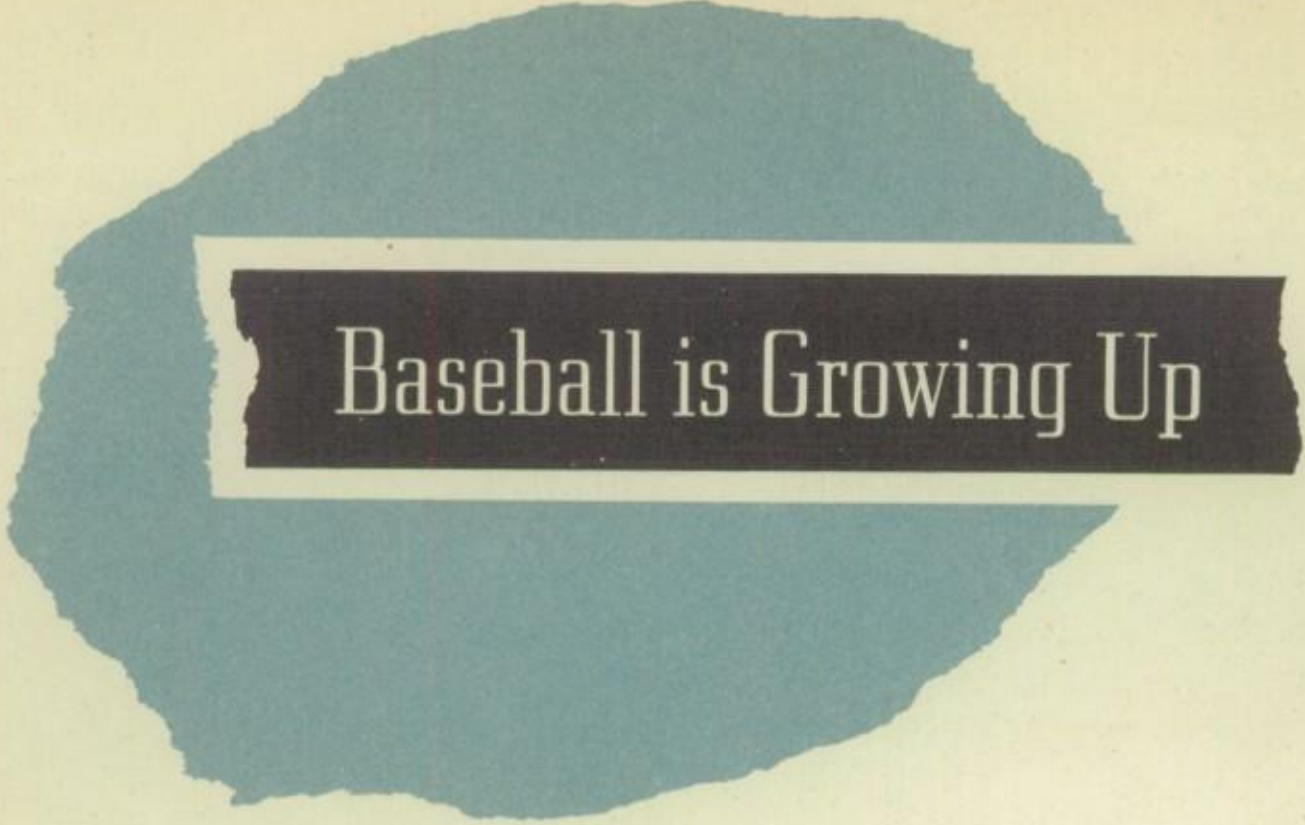

An important feature of the blossoming spring used to be the Gym Exhibitions. The performances were elaborate and colorful. There was dancing by pretty girls with bare feet and filmy costumes. Mr. Steele's gym classes supplied tumbling acts.

Incidentally, Mr. Steele was football coach here at MHS from 1924 to 1933.

The 1936 cross country squad, the first to enter inter-school competition, won the Northern Indiana championship.

Coach Struck's 1939 basketball squad won their sectional tournament, which took place in our own gymnasium.

Track was first introduced in 1921 after it had been decided that an athlete needed three years of competition or letters in three sports in one year in order to merit a sweater award. The three-year rule was rescinded not long after.

Baseball is Growing Up

Rain, mud, more rain. No time for a good practice for the baseball team. Games were postponed as a result. Finally, the boys got in enough practices and in their first game ran over a comparatively weak Central Catholic team in an 11 to 0 shutout, with Rehbein doing the hurling. In the next contest, Washington Clay proved not much more than a good practice game for the Maroons. They were disposed of by a score of 16 to 0.

While playing in the mud and snow, the Mishawakans lost a loosely played contest to Elkhart on the latter's home diamond to the tune of 14 to 4. In the following week, Washington of South Bend proved too much for the Cavemen and beat them, 6 to 2.

Traveling to Michigan City for their first conference game, "Bake's" boys were whitewashed by the Red Devils, 2 to 0. Bud Rehbein did the chucking. Meeting South Bend Central in the next game was about the same story. The Bears downed the Maroons with a 6 to 2 score.

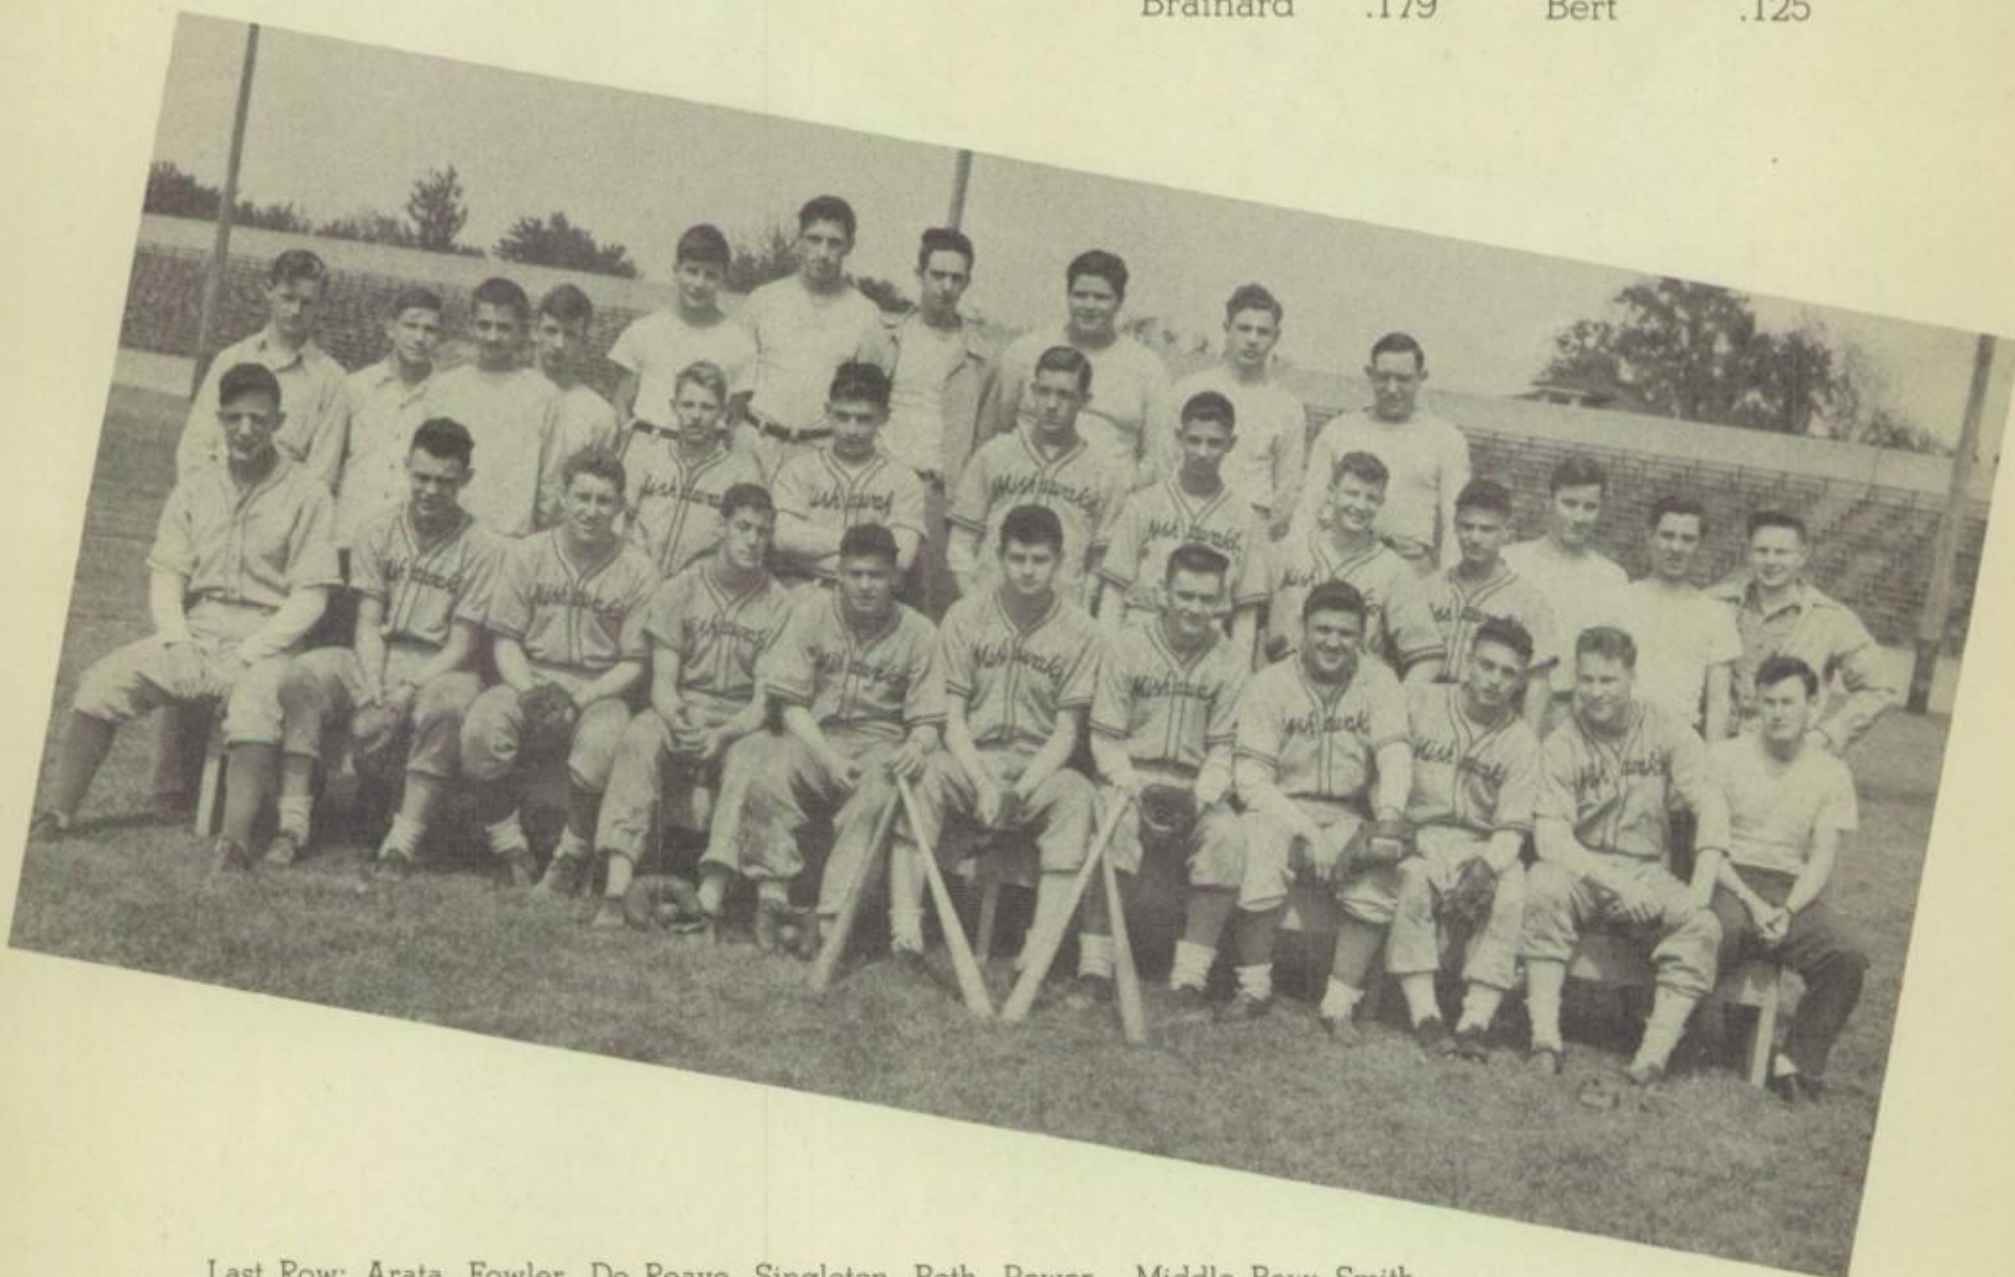

In a game with the Riley Wildcats, which lasted eleven innings, the Cavemen downed the South Siders with a 4 to 2 verdict. Tate and Oppelt were the local big guns. Seeking revenge for an early season defeat, Mishawaka downed the favored Washington Panthers in their second conference game, 13 to 1. Every Maroon had a field day. Central tried invading the Maroon camp and found the ride a little unpleasant. They were turned away with a 15 to 2 score.

In the fifth conference game, John Adams proved a stubborn hazard for the Cavemen but were defeated 2 to 0. Russ Shutes pitched brilliantly throughout the twelve innings. Seeking their fifth league win over Elkhart, the Cavemen dropped a close decision to the Elkhart Blue Blazers, 4 to 3. Our boys had fairly easy going in the next two games by downing Central Catholic, 12 to 6, and in a loop game defeated Nappanee, 12 to 3. In the final game of the season, the Maroons journeyed to LaPorte and found an unwelcome reception waiting for them. They were overwhelmed by a 6 to 1 score.

The season closed with six conference wins against three losses. The overall record shows Baker's boys won eight games and dropped six games. This was good enough for third place in the league standings.

G.A.A. Noon Games

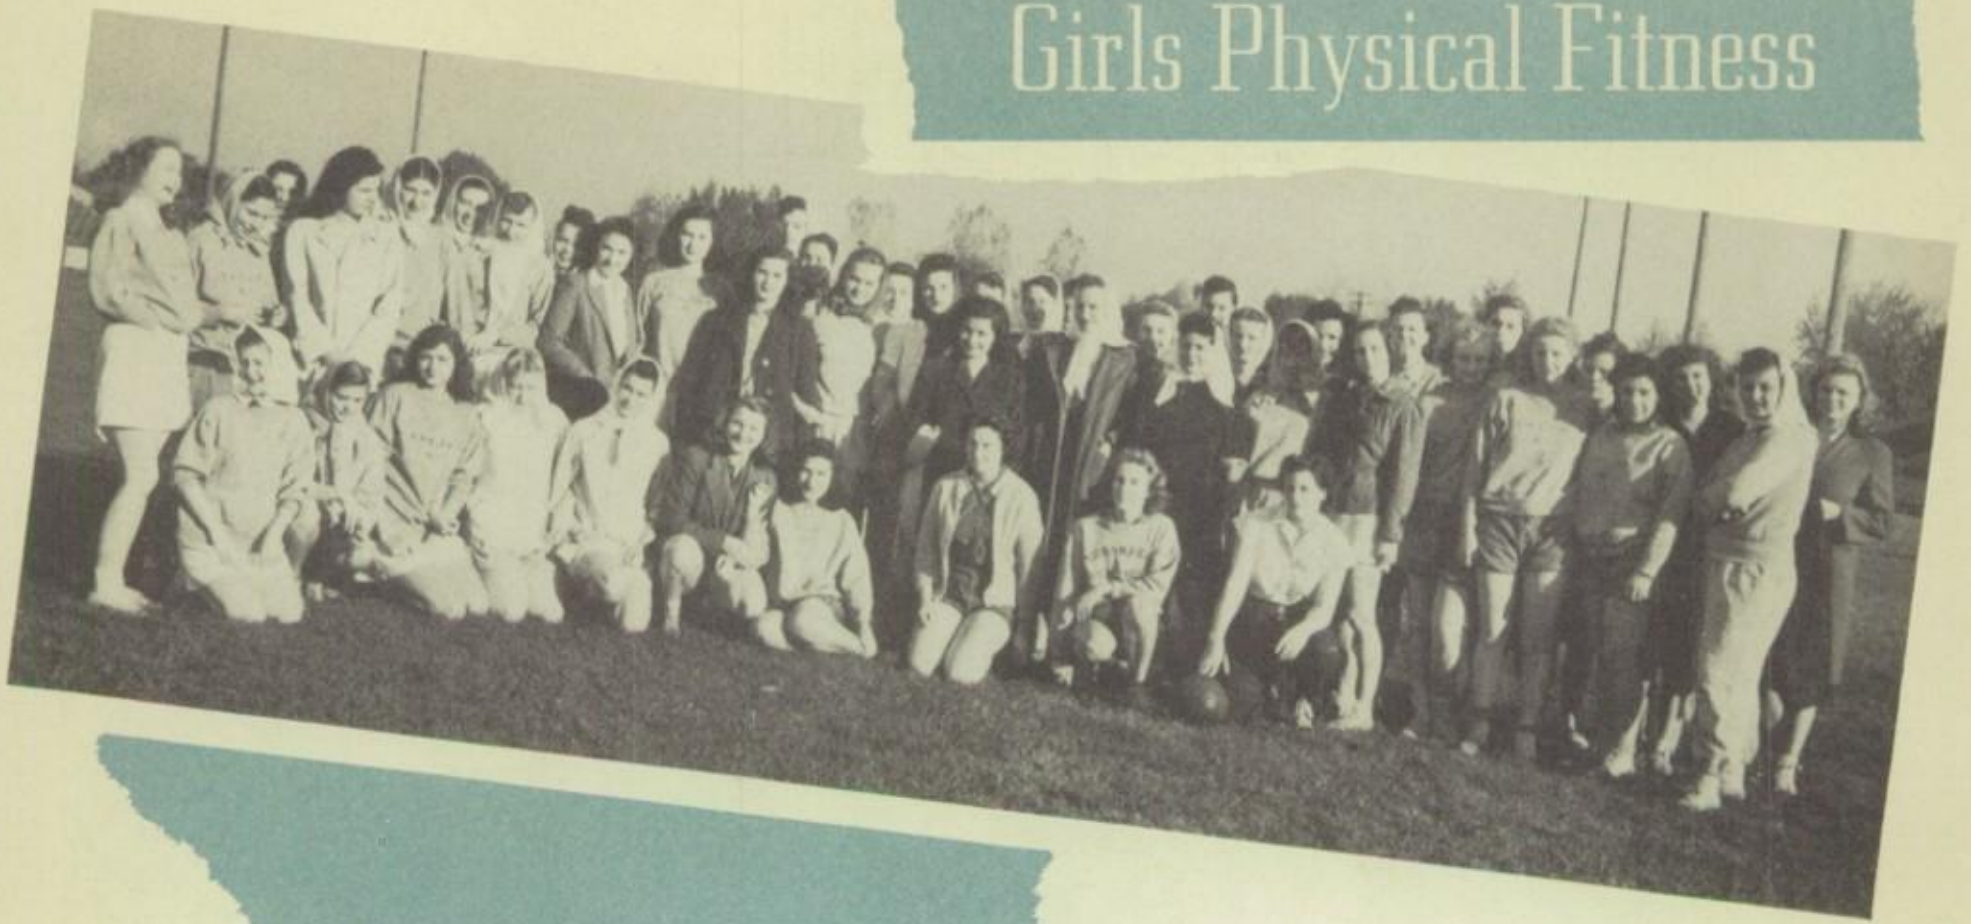

When Mr. Emmons came to Mishawaka High School as superintendent, a quarter of a century ago, he found girls' athletics, then called the Girls Athletic League, well organized and quite popular.

Today, the Girls Athletic Association, counting eighty-five members, enjoys that same popularity under the direction of Miss Hazell Goodwin and the officers, Illa Rodgers, president; Jackie Tuesley, vice-president; and Billie Jo Miller, secretary.

The girls play two or three times a week in the gym or on the athletic field during the noon hour. Speedball, basketball, volleyball, and softball are on the regular schedule, with some bowling and swimming thrown in after hours.

This year G.A.A. letter awards for piling up a total of 250 points went to Georgianna Richardson and Illa Rodgers. Numerals which represent 150 point totals were given to Loretta Everhart, a senior; Joan Kurzahls, Mary Jane Oppelt, Norma Powell, Joyce Ulrey and Jackie Tuesley, juniors; Pat Callsen, Helen Heyde, Lois Middleton, Betty Sill, and Betty Wilson, sophomores.

Girls Physical Fitness

Sophomore G.A.A.'s. won the interclass basketball tournament which was recently completed. The junior girls came in second, and the seniors third, which leaves the freshmen in fourth place. Members of the winning team were Pat Callsen, Helen Heyde, Louis Middleton, Mary Ruth Sandvold, Betty Sill, and Alberta Stricker.

The six high point players for the eight tournament games played are Illa Rodgers, 53 points; Georgianna Richardson, 52 points; Betty Sill, 48 points; Lois Middleton, 37 points; Alberta Stricker, 27 points; and Pat Baughman, a freshman, 23 points.

Intramural Basketball League

LEAGUE I CHAMPIONS

Standing: Potts, Kollar, LeMere
Kneeling: Ewaska, Hintz, Leniski

Any boy who wishes to play in the Noon Intramural League enlists six other boys and turns their names in to Mr. Steele, director of athletics, who arranges a schedule of games between the teams. Outside of physical fitness classes and varsity sports competition, these noon basketball games provide the only available sports activity. About the only requirement is that the players not be enrolled for varsity basketball.

Richard Brandt, Bill Hemphill, Charles Keb, Clem Leniski, Wayne Marshall, and Pete Stoffelen were team captains in League I this year. League II captains were Charles Dias, Bill Martin, Bill Riggs, Charles Bruggeman, and Norman Smedley. The Leniski team won all their games and the League I title. The Hemphill team came in second by winning four games. Members of the Hemphill team were Jim Dunlap, Walter Smith, James Arata, Delmar Mathews, and Francis Dosmann. The Bruggeman outfit won the League II title, with three teams tied for second place.

Starting March 18 and lasting until April 4, there will be a Noon League Elimination Tournament, which finishes too late to be reported here. It seems likely that the Leniski team will come out winner.

Golfers Win Conference Championship

In 1932 the Miskodeed carried for the first time a picture of a high school golf team. Since that time this minor sport has met with varying success. Last year the golf season was shifted from spring to fall, and Bud Marsee started his winning streak.

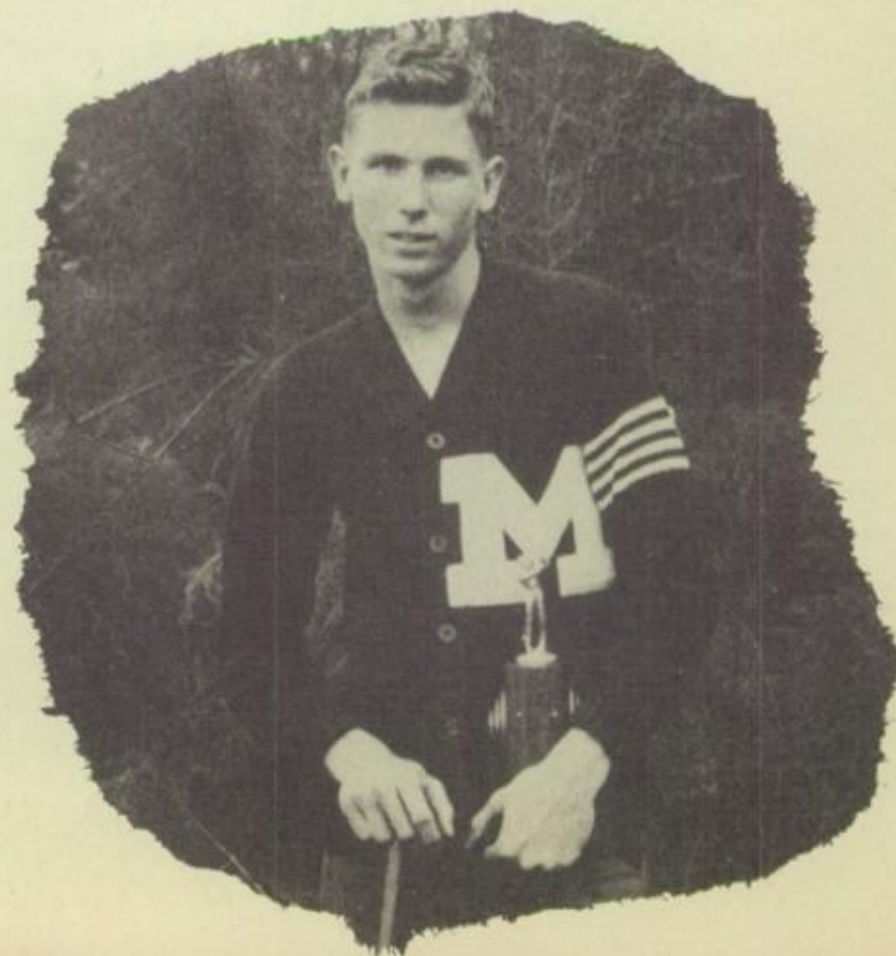

The team opened the 1945 season by winning their first three matches on the conference schedule. One loss and one tie followed. From that time on, with the exception of the LaPorte Invitational tourney when the Maroons placed sixth, the boys won consistently. Bud Marsee copped the medalist honors throughout the season, including the LaPorte Invitational where his score was 78.

First place in the Eastern Division of the Northern Indiana High School Conference allowed our golfers to meet Hammond Technical High School, champions of the Western Division. A victory over Hammond gave Mishawaka the conference championship for the first time in the history of the sport.

The M.H.S. racqueteers were not too successful this season. A lack of experienced players accounts for the greater share of their defeats. Despite the fact that tennis has been a part of our sports program since 1927, most of these boys had hardly held a racquet in their hands before coming to high school. Add to this the scarcity of balls and other equipment during the war years, and the necessity of practicing on city-owned courts which are not always kept in good condition.

This year's team was made up of Don Klatt, John Krueckeberg, Ray Celie, Willard Bauer, Charles Bruggeman, Gene Goddard, Dale Sherry, and Ray Wardell. Five matches were arranged with South Bend schools in September and October. As the season progressed, the local boys showed considerable improvement. Unfortunately, in the annual Conference Meet on October 6, the Cavemen tied for last place. However, Krueckeberg and Klatt earned letters for winning at least half their matches. Celie was given a monogram, and Bauer, Bruggeman, Goddard, Sherry, and Wardell received numerals.

Miskodeed

Steif, Flack, Goethals, Ward, Moore, Shirk, Wedsworth, Davis.

Thirty-two years ago, the first edition of the MISKODEED appeared, and the yearbook has been published almost continuously ever since. The MISKODEED was published by the junior class until the early 1920's when the seniors took over.

A regular feature of our yearbook used to be the advertisements of local professional men and merchants. In 1933, during the depression, growing opposition caused this practice to be discontinued.

Starting with our first assignment of taking underclass pictures to our "last round-up" of news, this year's MISKODEED staff has received valuable assistance from a number of people.

We especially wish to thank Mr. James Powell of Mossberg & Company, Mr. K. G. Cooley of the S. K. Smith Company, Mr. Andrew J. Coryell of The Coryell Company, Mr. Robert Cuthbert of the Universal Flash Company and the Moran Studio. Mr. Ray Bigler took some of the views of the school building.

We are grateful to the English teachers for helping us with the underclass pictures, and to the Office of the Principal for allowing the MISKODEED staff to arrange a continuous picture taking schedule.

Many other people contributed their time and services. The regular staff members not appearing in the picture are Bob Enfield, Vivian Balestri, and Bonita Schlegel. Margaret Petersen gathered the information for the junior class, and Mary Ruth Sandvold edited the sophomore class section.
